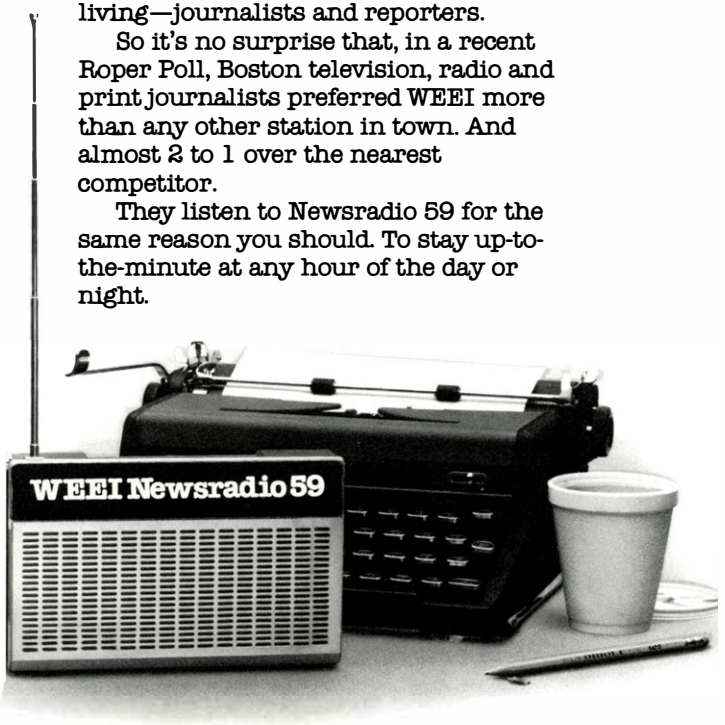
Roper Poll reveals:

The radio news that Boston news professionals listen to most.

No one knows more about news than the people who follow news for a living—journalists and reporters.

So it's no surprise that, in a recent Roper Poll, Boston television, radio and print journalists preferred WEEI more than any other station in town. And almost 2 to 1 over the nearest competitor.

They listen to Newsradio 59 for the same reason you should. To stay up-to-the-minute at any hour of the day or night.



The best informed people in Boston listen to WEEI Newsradio 59. Shouldn't that include you?

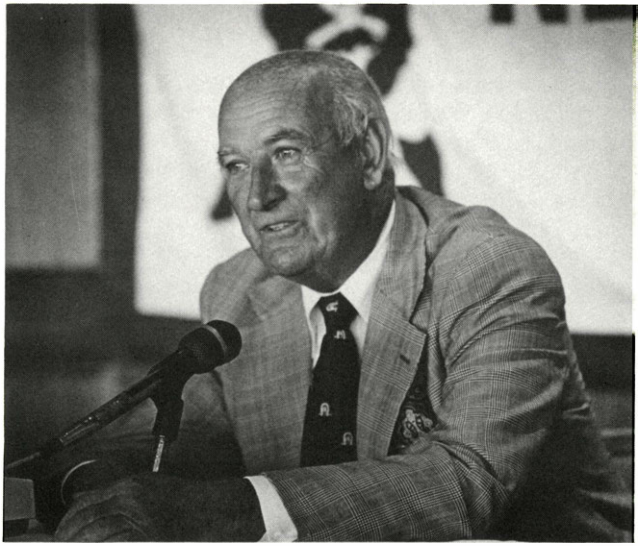
PRESIDENT



WILLIAM H. SULLIVAN, JR.

Wednesday, June 29, 1983 will always be remembered by William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr. as one of the most memorable days in his memory-filled life. For it was on that day that Schaefer Stadium officially was dedicated as Sullivan Stadium in tribute to the man who is the founder, owner and driving force of the Patriots.

Until 1959, New England had been a graveyard for more than a half dozen professional football teams, but Billy changed that. Through his untiring efforts and perseverance, Billy not only fielded a team in the newly formed American Football League, he has guided the development of the franchise into becoming one of the most popular and competitive clubs in the NFL.

On November 18, 1959, Billy was awarded the eighth franchise in the fledgling American Football League. He has made an indelible impact on the nation's No. 1 sport since that great day. He did get a team on the field. From 1961 to 1964 he was President of the AFL and served on the television committee that authored a $36 million contract with NBC to guarantee survival of the young league. He was a key member of the AFL's team that hammered out the merger format with the NFL, and he has served as a director of both NFL Properties and Films.

Since starting his love affair with pro football, Billy has traveled through many valleys and over many peaks. By undaunted determination and a boundless capacity for hard work, he kept the Patriots alive until locating the team in its present 61,086-seat Sullivan Stadium home, and assumed full control of the franchise by purchasing 88 percent of the voting stock on Nov. 17, 1975 and all of the non-voting stock on Dec. 8, 1976.

Billy graduated from Boston College in 1937 and served as Publicity Director at his alma mater from 1938-1940. In 1941 he went to Notre Dame as special assistant to the Director of Athletics. After a hitch on the staff of the U.S. Naval Academy, he joined the Boston Braves baseball team as Director of Public Relations in 1946. During his six-year tenure with the Braves he conceived the "Jimmy Fund" that has since grown to be an internationally known cancer research program studying leukemia in children.

In 1955 he joined Metropolitan Petroleum Co. and became President of the firm three years later. He continued his rise in the corporate world 20 years later when he was named executive vice president of the parent Pittston Corporation, a position he held until his retirement from the national energy giant in the Spring of 1981. In addition to serving as a director for numerous organizations, Billy was re-elected on April 8, 1981 to serve a second term as Chairman of the Board of NFL Properties, Inc.

Billy and his wife, the former Mary Malone, are the parents of three sons, Charles (Chuck), William H. III and Patrick as well as three daughters, Kathleen Sullivan Alioto, Jeanne Sullivan McKeigue and Nancy Chamberlain.

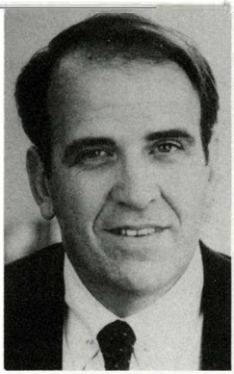
Whether it's the oil business or the Patriot fortunes in the NFL, Billy Sullivan has the same, unwavering philosophy, "The best is yet to come."

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

CHARLES W. "CHUCK" SULLIVAN

Since the Patriots first fielded a team in 1960, Chuck has served the franchise in a variety of capacities and has been the club's Executive Vice President since July, 1979.

A graduate of Boston College, he also received a law degree from BC's Law School and a Masters degree in Law from Harvard. Following graduation, Chuck spent two years on active duty in the U.S. Army, rising to the rank of Captain while serving one year in Thailand. After his tour in the Army, Chuck then attended Harvard and soon after began his career in law and football.



Chuck is a partner in the law firm of O'Melveny & Myers and is based in that firm's New York office. During his law career, he has represented the Patriots in the successful defense of anti-trust litigation brought by former Patriot QB Joe Kapp and has assisted several NFL teams with corporate reorganizations, acquisition financings and training facility financings.

In addition to his football related duties, Chuck has also been active in legal matters relating to real estate development. He represented the Jordan Marsh Company in connection with the development of Lafayette Place, a 75-million dollar project in downtown Boston which includes a new Jordan Marsh store, a new retail shopping mall and a 400-room hotel.

In the Fall of 1981, Chuck formed Stadium Management Corporation (SMC) for the purpose of purchasing the then-named Schaefer Stadium and its related assets from Stadium Realty Trust. With the sale completed on November 6, 1981, Chuck then spearheaded an 11-million dollar improvement project at the newly named Sullivan Stadium. The project included the construction of a new media facility and luxury suites, new washroom and concession areas, the installation of a new Diamond Vision full color instant replay scoreboard and a new meeting and training facility for the football operation.

On June 6, 1977, Chuck was elected by NFL owners to serve as Chairman of the NFL's Management Council's Executive Committee (NFLMC) and was re-elected to serve a second term on March 30, 1981. During his second term of service with the NFLMC, the Executive Committee coordinated the negotiation of the 1982 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Chuck is also Vice President and General Counsel of Wells National Services Corporation, a company affiliated with Kidde, Inc. that operates a hospital-patient television network in 350 hospitals throughout the nation. Also, he is Chairman of the Board of Graphco American Charts, Inc., an affiliate of General Signal Corp., which produces and markets chart paper for industrial and medical applications.

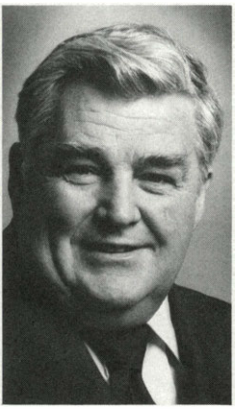
VICE PRESIDENT

BUCKO KILROY

Francis J. ''Bucko'' Kilroy has been employed in almost every conceivable capacity in the NFL as he enters his 41st year with the league. After serving the Patriots for four years as General Manager, he was promoted to the position of Vice President on February 16, 1983 and will concentrate his efforts in player personnel and development. In that capacity, he will continue to stress his highly regarded scouting philosophy to ''leave no stone unturned'' in searching for talent.



Born in Philadelphia, he established himself as one of the city's premier schoolboy athletes before departing for South Bend and the University of Notre Dame. His stay there was short as he returned to his hometown to attend Temple University where he went on to become one of the greatest linemen in the school's history. For his efforts on the collegiate gridiron, Bucko was inducted into the Temple Hall of Fame in 1976.

Bucko began his NFL career with his hometown Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 and played there 13 straight seasons. During that time, he once played in 146 consecutive games and was selected as an all-pro at both offensive guard (1947-49) and middle guard (1952-54). He gained additional honors for his pro grid exploits as he was elected to the NFL's all-decade team for the 1940's and inducted into the Helms Hall of Fame.

He made a gradual entry into the coaching ranks by serving the Eagles for three seasons as a player/coach before assuming the full-time role of line coach for six more NFL campaigns. In addition to coaching, he also served as the club's player personnel director, making him one of the five original talent scouts in the league.

In 1962, Bucko was named Director of Player Personnel of the Washington Redskins and then moved to the Dallas Cowboys in 1965 to become a ''super scout'' with that organization. During Bucko's five year tenure with the Cowboys, the team won five straight divisional championships, an indication of his impact on the team's scouting success.

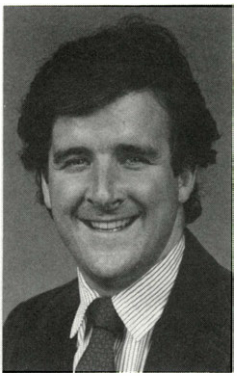
Having developed a reputation as one of football's finest scouts, Bucko was named Player Personnel Director of the Patriots in 1971. He faced a monumental challenge of revamping and revitalizing a scouting operation that had shown little success in prior years. Under his direction, the Patriots' scouting department became one of the finest in the NFL and played an integral part in the Patriots' upsurge that brought them playoff appearances in 1976 and 1978.

A natural choice for the position, Bucko was appointed General Manager on April 6, 1979. In that capacity, he directed the Patriots' day-to-day business operation, was responsible for all contract negotiations and guided the implementation of a state-of-the-art computer system for the Patriots' operation. He also played an instrumental role in planning the building of a grass practice facility and an in-house film lab. Bucko was also instrumental in selecting Ron Meyer as the Patriots' eighth head coach, a man whom he had worked with on the Dallas Cowboys' scouting staff in 1971.

GENERAL MANAGER

PATRICK SULLIVAN

Ever since his father, William H. ''Billy'' Sullivan, Jr., was awarded the newly founded AFL's eighth and final franchise in November of 1959, Patrick Sullivan has been an active and important member of the Patriots' organization. Since his appointment as General Manager on February 16, 1983, Patrick will now be responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operation of the club.



The youngest of Billy and Mary Sullivan's six children, Patrick began his Patriots' career as an eight year-old ballboy and then spent time assisting the training staff and ticket office staff while attending Wellesley (MA) Public Schools.

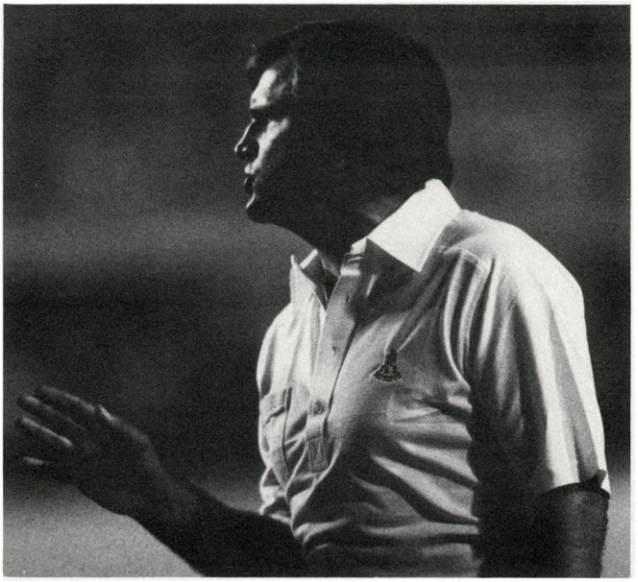
Patrick graduated from the Browne and Nichols Prep School (Cambridge, MA), where he played football as a 5-10, 170 lbs. defensive lineman in 1971 and then enrolled at his father's alma mater, Boston College. While at BC, Patrick worked in the Promotions Department at Boston's WSBK TV (Channel 38). In 1976, he graduated with a BS in English and then joined the Patriots on a full-time basis.

His first full-time role with the Patriots was on the Stadium Operations staff. He literally swept floors, cleaned waste-baskets and plowed snow on that job, but less than a year later, in February of 1977, he traded in his work clothes for a jacket and tie and was named Publicity Assistant. Three months later, he returned to the Stadium Operations Department, but this time as Stadium Manager. At the age of 24, Patrick earned the responsibility for the day-to-day operation of Sullivan Stadium and the Patriots' office facility.

In April, 1979, when Bucko Kilroy was appointed General Manager to replace the departed Chuck Fairbanks, he chose Patrick to be Assistant General Manager, a position he assumed on May 18, 1979. For the next four years, Patrick assisted Kilroy in a variety of duties, including the development of a state-of-the-art computer system for the entire Patriots' operation, the installation of an in-house film lab, the construction of a grass practice facility and overseeing a multi-million dollar improvement program at Sullivan Stadium. Patrick also negotiated player contracts for veterans, rookie and free agents, alike.

Born on November 23, 1952, Patrick is married to the former Lynne Massari of Hamden, CT and they are the parents of an infant son, Garrett Patrick.

HEAD COACH



RON MEYER

Ron Meyer not only fulfilled a life-long dream to become an NFL head coach last year, he also took on one of the greatest challenges of his 20-year coaching career when he was named the eighth head coach in Patriot history on January 15, 1982.

He immediately went to work on his newest challenge, to rebuild a Patriot ballclub that had suffered through a 1981 season that resulted in the worst record in club history, 2-14, and mired the team in the cellar of the NFL that year.

Turning a team around is no easy matter, especially in the fiercely competitive AFC East. But Ron Meyer is a man with a plan for rebuilding that is founded by past successful rebuilding experiences. On two other occasions, in 1973 at UNLV and in 1976 at Southern Methodist University (SMU), he took over college teams that had suffered similar fates to that of the Patriots' in 1981.

Starting out is never easy, but the team had nowhere to go but up. After finishing 1-3 in the preseason, Ron took the Patriots to Baltimore for the 1982 season opener and his debut as a pro head coach. The Patriots defeated the Colts 24-13 that day (September 12th), marking the tenth time in ten tries that his teams won their season opener with Ron as head coach. The Patriots then suffered an embarrassing loss to the NY Jets at home, just a day before the 57-day NFLPA strike began.

Once the strike was settled, Ron took the team to Cleveland, where they lost 10-7 on the final play of the game. He then made the biggest decision of his young pro coaching career, replacing starting QB Matt Cavanaugh with the veteran signal caller Steve Grogan. With Grogan at the offensive controls, the Patriots won four of their last six games, to finish third in the division and seventh in the 14-team AFC with a 5-4 mark. In the process, the Patriots became the first team since 1976 to score back-to-back shutout wins (3-0 over Miami and 16-0 at Seattle), the rushing offense was second in the league (only 24 yards behind league leader Buffalo) and the defense, with six new starters (including three rookies) finished a respectable 13th among the 28 NFL clubs.

With his first pro coaching season under his belt, Ron is continuing to rebuild the Patriots into a playoff contender, a reputation the club enjoyed from 1976-80 while compiling a 50-26 record. If his past coaching successes at UNLV and SMU are any indication as to what the future may hold, then the Patriots are on their way to achieving the ultimate goal in the NFL, to win a Super Bowl Championship.

Meyer inherited an SMU team in 1976 that finished 4-7 the year before and in six seasons built one of the top college football programs in the country. In 1981, his Mustang squad finished 10-1, losing only to Texas, 9-7 on October 24, and won the Southwest Conference. While SMU was ineligible for postseason play while on NCAA probation, conference runnerup Texas went on to the Cotton Bowl and defeated Alabama. Meyer's team was ranked second in the nation by CBS and sixth in the country by both Sports Illustrated and the Associated Press.

During his six seasons at SMU, Meyer compiled a head coaching mark of 34-31-1 (.523), but his last two teams won 18 of 22 games (.818) and his 1980 team played against Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl.

A native of Westerville, Ohio, where he was born on February 17, 1941, Meyer earned ten letters in three sports — football, basketball and baseball — and was captain and all conference in all three as a senior. He also served as class president from the ninth through twelfth grades and attained the rank of Eagle Scout.

Meyer went to Purdue as a walk-on football candidate in 1959 and earned a football scholarship in the second semester of his freshman year. A defensive back, he led the team in minutes played as a junior and senior. Outstanding both on the field and in the classroom, Meyer was selected to the All-Big 10 Academic Team and won the Nobel Kaiser Award for athletic and academic achievement in 1963.

Upon graduation, he remained at Purdue for one year to serve as a graduate assistant coach on Jack Mollenkopf's staff before becoming head coach at Penn High School in Mishawaka, Indiana. After recording a 5-4-1 record there in 1964, he returned to his alma mater to spend six seasons (1965-70) as an assistant coach.

While on the Purdue staff, Meyer was responsible for the offensive backfield, receivers and the overall passing game. He worked with such players as Bob Griese, Leroy Keys and Mike Phipps during that time. In his second year there, Purdue beat Southern Cal, 14-13 in the 1967 Rose Bowl.

Meyer exhibited a sharp eye for identifying talent while with the Boilermakers and personally recruited former Patriot wide receiver Darryl Stingley, former Denver runningback Otis Armstrong and Washington defensive lineman Dave Butz. In 1969, Meyer convinced the three to play their college ball at Purdue and all three were first round draft choices in the 1973 NFL draft.

Stingley, now the Patriots' Executive Director of Player Personnel said, "Ron is a real class guy who made me what I am as both a player and as a person. It was because of Ron that I attended Purdue. I knew then that he would be a successful coach and his record has proven me right. I am sure that he will be able to get the Patriots back on the winning track."

In 1971, Meyer left Purdue for the NFL ranks, joining the Dallas Cowboys as a personnel scout and spending several months on the same scouting staff as Patriots' Vice President Bucko Kilroy. Kilroy said of Meyer's appointment, "I am very pleased to be reunited with Ron for many reasons, the most important of which include that he is very bright, an innovator, a workaholic and a no nonsense guy with only one goal in mind—to win."

After two years with the Cowboys, he was named head coach at the University of Nevada — Las Vegas in 1974.

Meyer took over a UNLV squad that had won once in eleven starts in 1972 and in his first year at the helm the Rebels turned in an 8-3 record. In 1974, the Rebels finished undefeated in eleven regular season games and split two playoff games to finish as runnerup in the NCAA Division II National Championship. In his third and final year there, Meyer guided the Rebels to a 7-4 mark before being summoned to Dallas and SMU.

Meyer and his wife Cindy are the parents of two sons, Ron, Jr. and Ralph, and two daughters, Elizabeth and Kathryn. His hobbies include bass fishing, golf, football history and World War II history.

ASSISTANT COACHES

NOTE: With the exception of Defensive Coordinator Rod Rust, the entire Patriots Coaching Staff worked together in 1982. Rust was appointed Defensive Coordinator on February 7, 1983, replacing Jim Mora who resigned the post to become head coach of the Philadelphia Stars (USFL).

TOMMY BRASHER
Defensive line

Tommy begins his 20th year of coaching this season and has spent a majority of his coaching career handling defensive positions. In his first year with the Patriots last season, he worked with seven defensive linemen, only one of whom — Julius Adams — had any pro playing experience prior to the start of the year. Working with the young and promising defensive line, Brasher's charges turned in 20 sacks in the nine game season, and big improvement over the Patriots sack total of 20 in 16 games the year before.

An All-Southwest Conference linebacker at Arkansas in 1962, Tommy played in the 1962 and 1963 Sugar Bowls but a knee injury limited his playing time as a senior. He began his coaching career following graduation as offensive and defensive line coach at his hometown high school in El Dorado, Arkansas. He later made two other coaching stops at Arkansas high schools, working at Galveston Ball in 1965 and 1966 and later at Hot Springs from 1966-69. As head coach at Hot Springs, he was named Arkansas Coach of the Year in 1968.

In 1970, Tommy jumped to the collegiate coaching ranks, spending one season as assistant defensive line coach at Arkansas. He then spent the next three seasons (1971-73) at Virginia Tech (VPI) where he spent two seasons coaching the defensive line and one season with the linebackers. After his tenure at VPI, Tommy served as defensive coordinator and line coach at N.E. Louisiana in 1974 and 1976, taking a one year break to serve as defensive coordinator of the WFL's Shreveport Steamer in 1975. Tommy joined Ron Meyer's staff at SMU in the spring of 1977 as the Mustangs' defensive line coach, a position he served in for five seasons before assuming the same capacity with the Patriots.

Born December 30, 1940 in El Dorado, Arkansas, Tommy and his wife LaNelle are the parents of two daughters, Melodie and Christy.

CLEVE BRYANT
Offensive Backs

In his first year as offensive backs coach, Cleve played an instrumental role in guiding the Patriots ground attack to a second place finish in the NFL's team rushing standings last year. With 1,347 yards on the ground, the Patriots rushing attack was outgained by only the Buffalo Bills, the NFL team rushing titlist, who had 1,371 yards.

An outstanding athlete at Glenwood H.S. in Canton, Ohio, Cleve went on to direct Ohio University to back-to-back Mid-American Conference Championships in 1967 and 1968. For his efforts on the collegiate gridiron, Cleve was tabbed as the MAC's Offensive Player-of-the-Year in 1968 and became the youngest player ever inducted into the Ohio University Hall of Fame when he was bestowed that honor in 1975. For his efforts on the gridiron, Cleve was chosen by the Denver Broncos in the 11th round of the 1970 NFL Draft.

Following graduation, Cleve spent five years with a financial planning firm before returning to football as quarterbacks and receivers coach on Dick Crum's staff at Miami of Ohio in 1977. When Crum became head coach at North Carolina, Cleve joined him there as quarterbacks coach. With the Tar Heels, Cleve helped engineer one of the most respected and innovative college offensive attacks in the country. Before Cleve joined the UNC staff, a Tar Heel quarterback had never led the ACC in passing, but he guided both Matt Kupec (1979) and Rod Elkins (1980) to the top of the ACC passing charts in back-to-back years.

Born on March 27, 1947 in Marianna, Florida, Cleve and his wife Jean are the parents of two sons, Rodney and Kyle.

LEBARON CARUTHERS
Strength and Conditioning

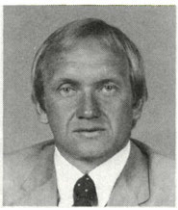
One of the top priorities set by Ron Meyer for his Patriots' squad is that they will be the NFL's strongest and best conditioned team. Noting the success that his SMU teams had in that area under LeBaron Caruthers, Meyer brought along the dedicated Caruthers to join his Patriots staff a year ago and make that goal a reality. Under Caruthers' program, each Patriot player follows an individually designed strength and conditioning program that incorporates free weight and Nautilus exercises as well as flexibility and jumping drills.

The Texas State Superheavyweight Division Olympic Lifting Champion in 1980 and 1981, LeBaron has a wealth of knowledge and experience in strength and conditioning techniques. He played offensive tackle at East Carolina in 1972, but transferred the following year to North Carolina State to concentrate on shotputting, discus throwing and weightlifting. While at N.C. State, he was a two-time All-America shotputter and had a personal best toss of 64'3''.

Following graduation, he served as an assistant track coach at Auburn from 1978 to March, 1980. In that capacity, he was also responsible for the weightlifting programs of both the mens' and womens' track teams. LeBaron then left Auburn to become Strength Coach for the entire SMU Athletic Department and played a vital role improving the overall physical strength and condition of the Mustang football squad.

As a weightlifter, LeBaron has recorded personal best lifts of 640 lbs. in the squat, 690 lbs. in the deadlift, 415 lbs. in the clean and jerk, 420 lbs. in the bench press and 320 lbs. in the snatch.

Born on April 24, 1954 in Nashville, Tennessee, LeBaron is single.



STEVE ENDICOTT
Receivers

Steve will coach the Patriots' receivers again this year, a position he was appointed to after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons under Ron Meyer at SMU. In his first season with the Patriots, the receiving corps topped the NFL for the second straight year with the best average yards gained per completion mark (15.27 yards).

A three year starter at quarterback for Oregon State, Steve ranks second to Terry Baker on the school record books for total offense in a season, passing yardage and TD passes. After his playing career, he stayed at OSU as a graduate assistant coach for the 1972 season before assuming the same position at Miami (FL) in 1973. In 1974, he was freshman coach for the Hurricanes and became the varsity quarterbacks and receivers coach the next year.

In 1976, Steve left Miami to join Meyer's new staff at SMU as receivers coach. When Larry Keenan left as SMU's offensive coordinator in 1978, Steve assumed that role in addition to handling the quarterbacks. In 1977, he served as a guest coach for Winnepeg of the CFL and the following year was a guest coach for the Toronto Argonauts, also of the CFL. In both cases, he worked with the receivers.

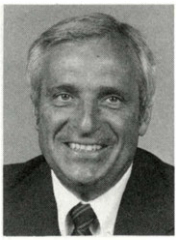
Born January 27, 1950 in Grants Pass, Oregon, Steve is single.



LEW ERBER
Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks

With 25 seasons of coaching under his belt, Lew begins his second season as the Patriots' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach as well as his tenth year in the NFL. Under his direction last year, the Patriots rushing game finished second in the NFL with 1,347, yards, just 24 yards behind the NFL team titlist, Buffalo, who had 1,371 yards. Also, the Patriots passing game topped the league for the second straight year in average yards gained per completion (15.27 yards), had the highest TD passing percentage in the league (6.4%) and one of the lowest interception rates (4.8%).

Lew joined the Patriots' staff after spending the previous six seasons with the Oakland Raiders. While with the AFC West club, he handled the Raiders' running backs from 1976-78 under Head Coach John Madden and spent the next three seasons as receivers coach under Head Coach Tom Flores. During his tenure at Oakland, Lew helped coach the Raiders to victories in Super Bowl XI (1977) and Super Bowl XV (1982) and tutored five Pro Bowl players — QB Ken Stabler, RB Mark van Eeghen, TE Dave Casper and WRs Raymond Chester and Cliff Branch.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Lew gained his first NFL coaching experience across the bay as receivers and kicking game coach of the San Francisco 49ers in 1974 and 1975. During that time, he coached all-pro WR Gene Washington.

Lew played his college ball as a single wing tailback and defensive back at Montclair (N.J.) State and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 1979. Following graduation, Lew served in the U.S. Marine Corps, attaining the rank of Captain and playing football at both the Quantico and Camp Pendleton Marine bases. Before moving to the pro ranks, he made collegiate coaching stops at Iowa State (1967-68), California Western (1969-72), San Diego (1973) and California (1974).

Born on May 27, 1934 in Clifton, N.J., Lew and his wife Pat are the parents of three daughters and two sons.

BILL MUIR
Offensive Line

The first coach named to Ron Meyer's staff, Bill Muir is in charge of the Patriots' offensive line, a unit that plowed through opposing defenses as the Patriots finished with the NFL's second highest team rushing total (1,347 yards). The offensive line also allowed only 15 sacks in 205 passing attempts, for a respectable 7.43% sacks allowed percentage. Muir tutored an offensive line that included two second-year players in the starting ranks — LT Brian Holloway and RG Ron Wooten — in addition to veterans John Hannah, Shelby Jordan and Pete Brock.

A tackle at Susquehanna (PA) College, he graduated in 1965 and spent the following fall as line coach at his alma mater. He then spent the next two years as offensive line coach and head track coach at Delaware Valley (PA) College before becoming the line coach of the Orlando Panthers of the Continental Football League for two seasons (1968-69).

Bill left the Panthers to rejoin the collegiate coaching ranks as defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Rhode Island from 1970-71. From there, he moved to Idaho State to assume similar responsibilities with the Bengals for the 1972 and 1973 campaigns.

In 1974 and 1975, Bill was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the Houston — Shreveport franchise of the WFL, serving on the same staff as Patriot defensive line coach Tommy Brasher in 1975. Following his two year stint in the WFL, Bill joined Ron Meyer's staff at SMU as offensive line coach for the 1976 and 1977 seasons before joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. With the Bucs, Bill spent 1978 as a college scout and the 1979-81 seasons as the club's pro personnel director.

Born October 26, 1942 in Pittsburgh, PA, Bill and his wife Barbara are the parents of a daughter, Keelan, and son, Brady.

ROD RUST
Defensive Coordinator

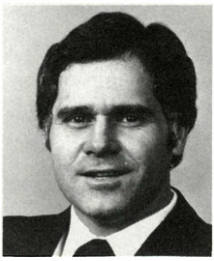
The defensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs during the past five seasons, Rod is the newest member of the Patriot staff, having joined the club on February 7, 1983. During the 1981 season, Rod was the architect of a Chiefs' rush defense that ranked first in the AFC. Last year, the Chiefs' defense ranked fourth on the AFC team chart while the Patriots' were sixth. During his tenure as the Chief's Defensive Coordinator, Rust aided the development of three present all-pros: DE Art Still, CB Gary Green and FS Gary Barbaro.

A native of Webster, Iowa, Rod played center and linebacker at Iowa State and spent a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in the Far East. Following his military hitch, he began his coaching career. He made his first coaching stop on the collegiate level as an assistant at New Mexico from 1960-62. He then moved west to Stanford University, where he served as defensive coordinator under John Ralston through the 1966 season.

In 1967, Rod was appointed head coach at North Texas State. During his six years there, he developed several outstanding defensive linemen, including all-pros Joe Greene and Cedric Hardman.

Following his duty at North Texas State, Rod joined long-time acquaintance Marv Levy, who was head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes. He spent three seasons (1973-75) as defensive coordinator of the Als before joining the NFL coaching ranks as linebackers and front seven coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for the 1976-77 seasons. When Levy became head coach of the Chiefs in 1978, his first staff appointee was Rod.

Rod and his wife Jean are the parents of two sons, Jeff and Greg, and two daughters, Kris and Amy.



DANTE SCARNECCHIA
(Pronounced Scar neck ya)
Tight Ends and Special Teams

Joining the Patriots' staff following two seasons as offensive line coach on Ron Meyer's SMU staff, Dante made an immediate impact on the Patriots' special teams play. In one year, the Patriots moved from deadlast to second in overall special teams performance and got credit for the league's longest kickoff return in 1982, a 98-yard TD effort by rookie Ricky Smith. Dante also coached the tight ends, Don Hasselbeck and Lin Dawson, who finished as the team's third and fourth leading receivers with 15 and 13 catches, respectively.

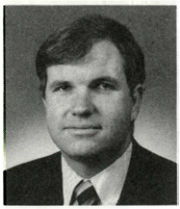
A standout guard at California Western University, he graduated in 1970 and spent the next three seasons (1970-72) as offensive line coach at his alma mater. In 1973, he started a two year stint on the staff at Iowa State and then joined Dave Smith's SMU staff in 1975. When Ron Meyer was named head coach at SMU in 1976, Dante remained on his staff for one season before becoming offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for two seasons (1977-78) at the University of the Pacific. After serving in the same position at Northern Arizona in 1979, Dante returned to the SMU staff as offensive line coach in 1980.

While playing at Cal Western, Dante played on a squad that included Patriots' Offensive Coordinator Lew Erber as a member of the coaching staff. In addition to his bachelor's degree earned at Cal Western, Dante also received a master's degree from U.S. International in 1973.

Born on February 15, 1948 in Los Angeles, Dante and his wife Susan are the parents of a son Steve and a daughter, Lisa.



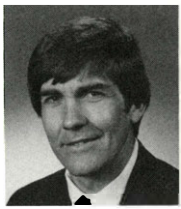
STEVE SIDWELL
Linebackers

Having worked on three different Ron Meyer staffs over the past ten seasons, "Sid" begins his second year as linebacker coach, a position he has handled since becoming a fulltime college coach in 1968. In his first year with the Patriots, he guided a starting linebacker foursome that included first-time starters Clayton Weishuhn, Don Blackmon and Larry McGrew, who all joined perennial defensive leader Steve Nelson. The linebacking corps made an immediate impact on the Patriots defensive efforts, enabling the young defensive unit to finish sixth on the AFC's team defense chart in 1982.

An All-Big 8 linebacker and center at Colorado in 1965, Sid played in both the Hula Bowl and Blue-Gray Game while also being tabbed as an Academic All-America pick. After graduation, he stayed on at Colorado to spend the 1967 and 1968 campaigns as a graduate assistant coach and then became a full-time member of Eddie Crowder's staff from 1968-73. In four of his five seasons as a full-time coach there, Colorado made postseason bowl appearances and the Buffs were ranked third nationally in 1971. During his coaching tenure at Colorado, Patriot center Pete Brock and tight end Don Hasselbeck were both starters for the Buffs.

In 1974, Sid left Colorado to become defensive coordinator and linebacker coach under Meyer at UNLV and later moved to SMU with Meyer in 1976 where he spent the next six seasons in the same capacity.

Born on August 30, 1944 in Winfield, Kansas, Sid and his wife Katy are the parents of two sons, Brad and Scott.



STEVE WALTERS
Secondary

In his first year as a pro coach, Steve became the Patriots sixth secondary coach in a seven year period. Under Steve's guidance, Rick Sanford made a smooth transition from strong to free safety, Roland James performed well at strong safety, and with the aid of possibly the NFL's finest cornerback duo — Mike Haynes and Raymond Clayborn — the Patriots' pass defense was rated fifth in th NFL for the 1982 season.

A two-year letter winner as a defensive back, Steve played at Arkansas in 1969-70. He then began his coaching career as an assistant freshman coach at Virginia Tech (VPI) from 1971-72 and then moved to the University of Tampa where he spent the 1973 season as coach of the receivers. In 1974 and 1975, Steve was the secondary coach at N.E. Louisiana. In both of his stops at VPI and N.E. Louisiana, Steve worked on the same staff as Patriots' Defensive Line Coach Tommy Brasher.

Steve left N.E. Louisiana to become the receivers and quarterbacks coach at Morehead State in 1976 and then spent the 1977 and 1978 seasons as the offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa. Prior to joining the SMU staff in 1980, Steve spent the 1979 season as quarterback coach at Memphis State.

In addition to the B.S.E. degree he holds from Arkansas, Steve also earned a masters degree in physical education from Morehead State in 1976.

Born June 16, 1948, in Jonesboro, Arkansas, Steve and his wife Susan are the parents of a son, Kirk, and a daughter, Kasey.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a process by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL Clubs. During this process, a club may make a claim to obtain the player or "waive" its right to do so — thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based upon the inverse of won-lost standings. The claiming period is normally ten days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, a club is allowed another 24 hours to rescind its action (recall of waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as a withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed or not recalled, he becomes a free agent. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 11 any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

INJURED RESERVE: This is a reserve list category that may be used for the player by a club if the player is injured in a practice session or game of his club in any year, after having passed the club's physical examination in that year. If a player fails the club's initial physical examination, he is not available for reserve/injured; the club may instead use the procedure of Physically Unable to Perform or Non-Football Injury/Illness, whichever is applicable. If a player is physically unable to play football for a minimum of four games from the time he is placed upon reserve/injured, he may be reactivated by his club upon clearing procedural recall waivers. Also, each club is allowed three free reactivation moves each season for players placed on reserve/injured following the final roster cutdown.

RESERVE LISTS: Included among the various categories on the reserve list are retired, injured, non-football injury/illness, physically unable to perform, military and did not report.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular season game (October 11, 1983) and does not resume again until January 30, 1984.

ROSTER SIZES: From 1978 to 1981, clubs were allowed 45 players on their active rosters. In 1982, the limit was raised to 49, but for 1983, the active roster has been set at 45 again. From 1975-77, each club was permitted 43 players on the active roster, while in 1974 the active roster limit was 47 players. The first roster limitation rule permitted 16 players per club in 1925.

ROSTER CUTDOWN DATES: All NFL clubs must reduce their active roster totals to 60 players on August 16, 1983, 50 players on August 23rd and to the final total of 45 players on Monday, August 29th.

STAFF PERSONNEL

DICK STEINBERG
Director of Player Development

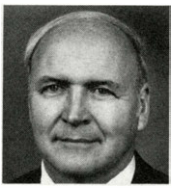
Regarded as one of the NFL's top talent hunters, Dick rejoined the Patriots' organization when he was named Director of Player Development on February 9, 1981. In his capacity, he is responsible for directing the Patriots' overall scouting operation and use of the Patriots' computer system in the accumulation and management of scouting data.

Steinberg rejoined the Patriots after departing his position as a Patroit scout to become Director of College Scouting for the Los Angeles Rams in June, 1976. He remained in that post until being promoted to the position of Director of Player Personnel, a post he held until June, 1980.

After his four year stay with the Rams, Steinberg joined then General Manager Steve Rosenbloom as Vice President of Player Personnel with the New Orleans Saints. Steinberg later resigned that post on January 20, 1981 before rejoining the Patriots.

A native of Philadelphia, Steinberg played football and majored in Physical Education and Health at Temple University. In addition to serving a two year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in France, Steinberg served as a high school coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High (1960-61) and at Staunton (VA) Military Academy (1961-64). He then entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Vanderbilt (1964-1967) and Kansas State (1967-69).

Following a brief stint as a scout with the Dallas Cowboys in 1969, Steinberg spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (1970-72) before joining the Patriots as a personnel scout under then Director of Player Personnel Bucko Kilroy. Steinberg served with the Patriots from 1972 to 1976 before departing for the Rams.



BILL MCPEAK
Director of Pro Scouting

Keeping track of pro football talent for the Patriots' organization is one of the NFL's most knowledgable football men, Bill McPeak.

A star at the University of Pittsburgh, McPeak played for the Pittsburgh Steelers as a defensive end from 1949-57. During that span, McPeak played in the 1953, 1954 and 1957 Pro Bowls. To date, McPeak still shares the NFL record for career safeties with three.

During the final two years of his tenure at Pittsburgh, McPeak began his 16 year NFL coaching career. In 1959, he joined the Washington Redskins, staying with the 'Skins until 1965. Of his seven seasons with that club, the final five were as head coach. Included on his staff at Washington was a player personnel director named Bucko Kilroy, now the Patriots' Vice President.

McPeak joined the Detroit Lions in 1967 as offensive coordinator, a post he held until he went to the Miami Dolphins in 1973.

While with the Dolphins as an offensive coach, the Dolphins won Super Bowl VIII, their second consecutive Super Bowl win and third straight Super Bowl appearance.

After suffering a serious illness during the 1974 offseason, McPeak remained out of the NFL on a full-time basis until being named to his present position on July 23, 1979.

When first named as general manager on April 6, 1979, Bucko Kilroy stated that one of his top priorities was to hire a pro scout, and he was elated to have the qualified McPeak join the Patriots' organization. Since that time, McPeak has been responsible for scouting present and prospective professional football talent both on film and in game situations.

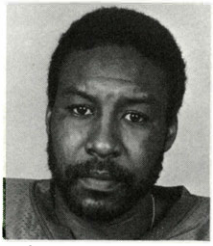
PRO: Don earned the starting right OLB spot in his second year of play last year and finished the nine-game season as the team's third leading tackler with 30 tackles and 47 assists...with great speed and strength, Don became an elusive pass rusher, tieing with DE Ken Sims for the team lead in QB sacks with 4½...he also was second on the squad in '82 with nine QB pressures...in the season opening 24-13 win at Baltimore (9-12), he made his first pro interception...against Miami (12-12), Don made a game saving interception of a David Woodley pass at the Patriot ten with 30 seconds to play to perserve a critical 3-0 win for the Patriots over the Dolphins...also had a big day in the season finale 30-19 win over Buffalo (1-2-83) that earned the Patriots a playoff spot...against the Bills, he registered nine tackles, four QB pressures and one sack...as a rookie, he made the squad with his brilliant special teams play and saw action in all 16 games...Don also saw spot duty at the OLB post, collecting 25 tackles, one QB pressure, one pass deflection and one caused fumble.
COLLEGE: A three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference selection who was the conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year in '80...during his career, Blackmon was a three-year starter who recorded 40 tackles for minus yardage (239 total yds.) as a senior, anchored Tulsa defense with 15 tackles effort that led to Tulsa's first shutout victory since 1967, a 3-0 win over Kansas State...during the same year had 18 tackles, including three for losses in 28-27 win over Texas State.
PERSONAL: Married (Jacqueline)...one daughter, Candice (1)...enjoys photography...resides in Ft. Lauderdale area...plans to complete degree in Advertising and Public Relations.
GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1981-16/0, 1982-9/9, Total: 25/9.
STATS: Interceptions: 1982-2. Fumble Recoveries: 1982-2 (one for +47 yds. vs. Houston 11-28).



MORRIS BRADSHAW 88

WR 6-1 195
OHIO STATE: 10th year
DOB: 10-19-52 at Highland, IL
HOW ACQUIRED: W-Raiders, 1982

PRO: Morris was acquired on waivers from the Raiders during the final roster reduction period last year...he was on the inactive list for the season opener, but played in the next eight games, starting five of them, including the last four games of the regular season...catching six passes for 111 yards (18.5 avg.) and one TD, Morris ranked fifth on the Patriots' receiving chart...his longest catch of the year was a 48-yard reception at Seattle (12-19) that setup the Patriots only TD in a 16-0 win...his lone TD catch of the year came with just eight seconds to play in the first half against Buffalo in the regular season finale (1-2-83)...that score began a Patriot comeback bid that resulted in a 30-19 win over the Bills and a playoff spot for the Patriots...an able and experienced wide receiver, Morris has also been a valuable special teams performer...his only 100-yard receiving game was an four catch, 107 yard performance at San Diego on 9-10-78...his single game high mark for receptions was an eight reception day at Chicago the same year...in his nine year career, Morris has played in 12 playoff games, as well as Super Bowl XI and Super Bowl XV...with 40 receptions for 552 yards (both single season career highs for Morris), he had the Raiders highest reception average (18.0) of 1978...originally the fourth round pick of the Raiders in 1974, he was the 93rd player selected that year.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman who played halfback, split end and flanker at Ohio State...against Wisconsin in 1971, he had an 88-yard TD run and returned a KO 88 yards for a score as well...averaged 23.7 yards per rush as a ball-carrier in college...lettered as a sprinter on the track team...majored in Political Science.

PRESTON BROWN 81

VANDERBILT 3rd year
DOB: 3-2-58 at Nashville, TN
HOW ACQUIRED: D-6, 1980

PRO: Preston started the first four games of 1982 opposite Stanley Morgan...he split duty with starter Morris Bradshaw for the final five games of '82...Preston accounted for the only Patriot TD at Cleveland (11-21-82), when he made an acrobatic 38 yard reception in the endzone...at rain soaked Soldier Field, he hauled in a 41-yard aerial to set up a Steve Grogan two-yard TD run (12-5-82). Preston hurt his back in the 1981 preseason finale vs. Washington and was placed on the injured reserve for the entire year on 8-31...as a rookie in 1980, he made the active roster as a kick returner and fifth receiver...in the fifth game of the year (10-5 vs. NY Jets), Preston broke his left thumb and was placed on the injured reserve list for the balance of the year five days later...at that point he had handled most of the kickoff and punt return duties...led the Patriots during the preseason with 16 kickoff returns for 350 yards (21.9 avg.) including a 44 yarder vs. Oakland...handled each of the Patriots' nine punt returns during the '80 preseason...the 162nd player drafted in '80, Preston was selected with one of the two picks acquired from Houston in exchange for OT Leon Gray.

COLLEGE: SEC's leading receiver as a senior with 52 receptions for 786 yards and 3 TDs...ranked eighth nationally in receiving as a senior...leading receiver in '79 Blue-Gray game with 4 catches for 78 yards...dangerous kick returner who tied SEC record with a 100 yard KO return vs. Ole Miss as a soph...returned a punt 90 yards for a TD in season opener of junior year (1978) vs Arkansas...59 career punt returns for 497 yards (8.4 avg.) and 80 career KO returns for a school record 1,497 yards (18.7 avg.)...played in '80 Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Married (Linda)...father of one daughter, Kristen Nicole (1)...was married two days before the start of the 1981 training camp and spent his honeymoon driving to camp...best singer on the squad...plays both the piano and guitar...enjoys narrating and singing at church programs during offseasons...his sister has appeared in Broadway plays...would like to pursue a career in music or law...graduated from Vanderbilt with a BA in May, 1981.

RICH CAMARILLO 3

P 5-11 191
WASHINGTON 3rd year
DOB: 11-29-59 at Whittier, CA
HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1981
Right-Footed kicker

PRO: Ron Meyer says, "Rich Camarillo is flat out the best punter in the league"...Rich enjoyed a banner second year in the NFL...although not selected to any all-star teams, he had the league's second best net average (37.7 yards) and set a team and individual record for season punting average (43.7 yards)...he accomplished those marks despite having to kick in horrendous weather conditions most of the time...boomed a 76-yard punt vs. NY Jets (9-19-82), which was the longest punt in the AFC and third best in the NFL in '82...Rich was named to the 1982 Sports Illustrated All-NFL team and was the 1776 Fan Club Unsung Hero for 1982...in his first season in the NFL, Rich was named to The Football Digest's All-Rookie team and had the longest punt of the season in the NFL with a 75-yard boot at Oakland (11-1-81)...three weeks later, he let go a 72-yard punt at Buffalo (11-22-81), the third longest punt of 1981 in the league...in only 18 games, he has been credited with kicking the second, third and fourth longest punts in Patriot history...of his 49 punts in 1982, 14 of them travelled over 50 yards apiece...originally signed by the Patriots as a free agent on 5-18-81, Rich attended the Patriots' 1981 training camp and was active for three preseason games...was waived on 8-24-81 as part of the NFL mandated roster reduction to 50 players...was re-signed after seven weeks of the regular season (10-19-81) and became the third punter on the Patriots' roster before the season's mid-way point...is a two step right-footed punter.

COLLEGE: Spent the first two years as a collegian at Cerritos (CA) J.C. where he averaged 40.5 yds. per punt and 42.8 yds. as a soph...transferred to Washington in '79 and punted 51 times for 2,077 yds. and a 40.7 avg. as a junior...his longest punt that year travelled 60 yds...third-ranked punter in PAC-10 that year...as a senior, he averaged 37.9 yds. per punt on 52 punts...longest punt went 57 yds.

PERSONAL: Single..plans to complete degree in Communications during pro offseasons...took up golf during past offseason...is a cliff diving and hot air balloon flying enthusiast...his uncle Leo is on the professional rodeo circuit and was named 1977 Cowboy-of-the-Year...younger brother Gary plays DB at Cerritos (CA) J.C....longest punt in high school travelled 71 yards.

MATT CAVANAUGH 12

QB: 6-2 212
PITTSBURGH: 6th year
DOB: 10-27-56 at Youngstown, OH
HOW ACQUIRED: D-2, 1978

PRO: Matt won the starting QB post after his training camp and preseason performance and started the first three regular season games...in the season opener at Baltimore, he only had to throw the ball 16 times, connecting on seven...but he hit on two of the seven for TD passes, leading the Patriots to a 24-13 win over the Colts...a week later, he was sacked six times as the Patriots offense was held scoreless in a 31-7 defeat by the NY Jets...in the first game played after the player strike, Matt tossed a 38-yard TD pass at Cleveland to knot the score at 7-7 in the final stanza, but a last second Cleveland FG dropped the Patriots to another defeat...the following week, Steve Grogan assumed the starting QB role for the year...Matt made one more appearance in the lineup, though, relieving the injured Grogan at Pittsburgh (12-26) in the second half...in a brilliant performance, he hit on 11 of 16 passes for 227 yards and two TDs, including a 75-yard scoring toss to Stanley Morgan which was the longest pass play of the year in the AFC...a year before, he also had a difficult experience at the helm as the Patriots won only once in his eight starts...taking over for starter Steve Grogan in the second half of a 13-3 loss at Philadelphia (9-13-81), Matt started the next four games...in his first start of the 1981 season, he connected on 14 of 26 attempts for 235 yards but hurled four interceptions in a 35-21 loss to Dallas on Monday Night (9-21-81)...the following Sunday, he made a homecoming return to Pittsburgh, site of many of his college quarterbacking heroics...in that game, he tossed a career high 42 pass attempts and hit on 22 for 325 yards and one TD...that was the first and only 300-yard passing game of his career...he also rushed three times for 17 yards and caught a nine yard flea flicker pass in the 27-21 overtime loss to the Steelers (9-27-81)...in a 28-24 loss the NY Jets on 10-11-81, he was removed from the lineup and did not see action again until the Patriots—Jets rematch on 11-15...in the game, he replaced the injured Grogan in the second half of play and then started the next four games...during the streak, he completed 17 of 24 passes (70.8%) for 245 yards vs. St. Louis (11-29)...playing in only the last two drives of the season finale at Baltimore, Matt completed 11 of 16 passes for 145 yards and one TD...making his first start as a pro, Matt guided the Patriots to their biggest point outburst of the year as they scored a 47-21 win over Baltimore (11-23-80)...starting in place of the injured Steve Grogan, who was ailing with two sore knees, Matt connected on 10 of 21 passes for 150 yards and one TD while rushing another 35 yards on seven carries...after injuring his left knee in that contest, which forced him to sit out the following week's loss at San Francisco, he returned to start the final three games of the '80 season...all in all, the Patriots won three of four games behind Matt, with the lone loss a 16-13 overtime defeat in Miami (12-8-80)...his best game was in the season finale at New Orleans (12-21-80) as he led the Patriots to a 38-27 come-from-behind win...on that day, he threw three TD passes while completing 16 of 28 passes for 233 yards...on the year, he set a club record for season passing completion percentage by hitting on 60% of his passes (63 of 105)...Babe Parilli, had held the previous record of 55.3%...in addition, he had a whopping 8.43 yard per attempt mark...in a spectacular aerial performance during the preseason, Matt completed 14 of 21 passes for 300 yards and three TDs (including two TD tosses in the final four minutes) during the second half to direct the Patriots to a thrilling 35-31 win over the Rams (8-12-80)...when he isn't engineering the offense, he placeholds for John Smith...following the'80 season, he underwent successful surgery on his left knee to repair torn cartilage...played in 13 games in his second pro campaign, (1979) mostly as placeholder for Smith...saw signal calling action vs. Jets (9-9-79), throwing one complete pass for ten yards...rookie year was spent learning and rehabilitating from Spring, 1978 knee surgery...missed three games in '79 (Balt., Buff. and Miami) following minor knee (right) surgery (11/12) to remove bone chips, but returned to action for final two games.

COLLEGE: Record laden career with Panthers enabled him to be chosen 50th in 1978 NFL draft...holds Pitt records for most passing TDs (5) in a game (vs. Duke. '76), most TD passes (15) in a season ('77), most career TD passes (31) and total offense in one game (370 yards vs. Duke. '76)...wrist injury early in senior year forced him to sit out only three weeks, then he returned to lead Pitt over Clemson in Gator Bowl (36-23-378-4 TDs) to win MVP honors...as a junior, he broke a leg but returned a month later to steer Pitt to Sugar Bowl win over Georgia (game MVP) and to National College Championship.

PERSONAL: Married (Nancy)...met his wife of two years who was a student and secretary at Bryant College, summer training home of the Patriots...earned a B.S. in Administration of Justice from Pitt in May, 1981...spent the past offseason as an Account Executive with Knight Quality Stations selling radio ad time...also owns and manages two gas stations...is in the process of spending his second straight year as Honorary Chairman of the Rhode Island Special Olympics...was the 1981 winner of the Frito-Lay Community Service Award...his favorite hobby is golf...brother Ken played football at Youngstown State while another brother, Dan is a senior WR at Pitt.

STEVE CLARK 65

OT 6-5 270
KANSAS STATE 2nd year
DOB: 10-29-59 at Chattanooga, TN
HOW ACQUIRED: D-5, 1981

PRO: Steve sustained an ankle injury in the Patriots' 41-27 preseason victory over Green Bay (9-4-82) that shelved him for the year...after having made the 49 man active roster, Steve was placed on injured reserve on 9-9-82...originally drafted as a DE in the fifth round in 1981, he was switched to OT midway through the 1982 training camp...Steve played in all four preseason games as a rookie, however, knee problems plagued him and he was placed on injured reserve (9-1-81)...was reactivated on 10-2-81, and played in several regular season games with no starts...saw action on special teams and spot duty at DE before a left knee injury, sustained in 17-6 loss at NY Jets forced him on injured reserve for the remainder of the season (11-16-81).

COLLEGE: Excelled as a senior in '80 with 68 tackles and four sacks...was the Wildcats' Defensive Player-of-the-Week vs. Iowa State (10-11-80) with 14 tackles, one QB sack and one fumble recovery...played at DT as a fresh and soph and switched to DE during his junior and senior years.

PERSONAL: Single...graduated Spring of 1981 with a degree in elementary Education...spent past offseason teaching elementary school, K-6 in Manhattan, KS...enjoys photogaphy...comes from an Air Force family, spent some of his childhood at Hanscom Air Force base in Bedford, MA.

RAY CLAYBORN 26

CB 6-0 186
TEXAS 7th year
DOB: 1-2-55 at Forth Worth, TX
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1a, 1977

PRO: When discussing NFL cornerback duos, the names Ray Clayborn and Mike Haynes invariably come up as the top pair in the league...Ray has continued to build an impressive list of credentials at the corner post while starting a team high 73 consecutive games through the '82 season...in the season opener at Baltimore (9-12), Ray grabbed his 17th career interception to setup the eventual game winning TD in a 24-13 Patriot victory...he enters the '83 season as the Patriots' sixth ranked all-time interception leader, just one short of fifth ranked Ron Bolton (18)...while contributing 26 tackles and 16 assists, Ray led the Patriots in pass deflections for the fourth straight year with 11...over the four-year span, he has knocked down a total of 41 passes (6 in '81, 9 in '80 and 15 in '79)...his 15 pass deflections in '79 amounted to one-third of the team total of 45 that year....Ray recorded both of his interceptions of 1981 against Miami (11-8), one which he returned 39 yards...in 1980, he broke Mike Haynes' four-year reign as team interception leader with five steals...four of the interceptions set up two TDs and two FGs...his two interceptions against Miami that year (10-12-80) led to ten points in a 34-0 Patriot win...having become a full time corner, Ray's role as the Patriots' primary kickoff returner was taken over by rookie Allan Clark in 1979, but he filled in for the injured Clark vs. Baltimore (10-28-79) to return two kickoffs for 33 yards...in his sophomore season (1978), he earned the starting role at corner for all 16 games and was 10th among AFC kickoff returners (27 for 636 yards, 23.6 yard avg.)...as the 16th player taken in the '77 NFL draft (choice from San Francisco in Jim Plunkett trade), he broke into the NFL in stellar fashion, setting five Patriot kickoff return records as a rookie...his 101-yard KOR vs. Balt. (12-18-77) for a TD was the NFL's longest of the year...he added KOR's of 100 yards (vs. NY Jets, 10-2-77) and 93 yards (vs. Buffalo, 11-6-77) to lead the league in that department for the '77 season...Ray's 869 kickoff return yards was second best in both the AFC and NFL in '77...as a rookie, he was named to PRO FOOTBALL WEEKLY'S all-AFC and all-pro squads as a kickoff returner...now playing with great confidence at the increasingly difficult corner position, Ray continues to emerge as one of the top corners in the NFL.

COLLEGE: A two sport standout at Texas, Ray played both football and ran on the track team...while a sophomore RB, he gained 209 yards on 74 carries for the Longhorns, but switched to the secondary for his final two college seasons...turned in six interceptions and 23 blocked passes in college...as a return specialist at Texas, he returned punts for 477 yards and kickoffs for another 582 yards, including a 95 yarder for a TD vs. Boston College (1974).

PERSONAL: Single...has spent every off season in the Austin, Texas area since graduating with a degree in communications...works as a real estate salesman there...includes horseback riding and jogging as favorite pastimes...college roommates were Earl Campbell (Houston) and Alfred Jackson (Atlanta).

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1977-14/1, 1978-16/16, 1979-16/16, 1980-16/16, 1981-16/16, 1982-9/9, Total: 87/74. Entering the 1983 season Clayborn has 73 consecutive starts.

TONY COLLINS 33

RB 5-11 203
EAST CAROLINA 3rd year
DOB: 5-27-59 at Sanford, FL
HOW ACQUIRED: D-2, 1981

PRO: When he was drafted in the second round of the 1981 draft, fans and media alike said they had never heard of Tony...now that he has been the Patriots' leading rusher in each of his first two seasons, Tony has established himself as both an integral and popular member of the Patriots' offense...as a rookie in '81, he set the club's rookie rushing record with 873 yards on 204 carries and led the club again last year with 632 yards on 164 yards...after only two seasons, Tony is ninth on the Patriots' all-time rushing list...on opening day, he spirited a 24-13 win at Baltimore, racing for 137 yards on 21 carries, while gaining 54 yards on one rush...that play was the Patriots' longest run from scrimmage in four years since Don Calhoun ran for 74 yards at St. Louis on 9-10-78...Tony added two other 100-yard rushing games during the abbreviated nine-game season, rolling up 161 yards (fifth best single game mark in club history) against Houston (11-28) and 103 yards at Seattle (12-19)...in both games, Tony had 32 rushing attempts, the third highest total for a single game in club history...overall, Tony spent most of the season near the top of the NFL rushing ladder, finally finishing the year fifth in the AFC and seventh in the league, only one yard behind Joe Cribbs of Buffalo...while he was the Patriots' most productive rusher, he also finished as the team's second leading receiver in '82, grabbing 19 passes for 187 yards and two TDs...as a rookie, he started 11 of the first 12 games...Tony had the top team rushing effort of 1981 and his only 100-yard game when he ran for 103 yards on 22 carries at Washington (10-25)...Tony's combined yardage total (rushing-receiving-returns) of 1,893 yards was bettered in the AFC by only James Brooks of San Diego who had a 2,093 combined total yardage output...in his first pro game, he rushed 15 times for 81 yards, caught three passes for another 48 yards and added 65 more yards on three kickoff returns against Baltimore (9-6)...Tony was the 11th RB and 47th player taken in the 1981 draft.

COLLEGE: A super productive three-year starter for the Pirates, he gained an average of 9.3 yards every time he touched the ball...as a junior he averaged 154.1 all purpose yards per game while leading ECU with 1,130 yards on 154 carries (7.34 avg.)...running from wishbone attack as a junior, he ran for 14 TDs and over 100 yards in five games...an excellent kickoff returner, Tony holds his school's season records for most KORs (37), total KOR yards (990) and longest KO return — 100 yards for a TD vs. both Florida State and N.C. State.

PERSONAL: Married (Samera)...a Special Education major at ECU who is working towards completion of his degree...is the second youngest in a family of 16 children that includes 9 boys and 7 girls...worked for his father's construction business while growing up in his hometown of Penn Yan in Central New York State.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1981-16/11, 1982-9/9, Total: 25/20.

LARRY COWAN 44

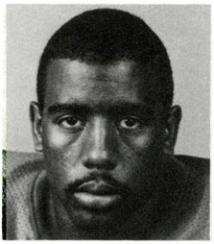
RB 5-11 194
JACKSON ST. 2nd year
DOB: 7-11-60 at Mobile, AL
HOW ACQUIRED: W-Miami, 1982

PRO: Larry was acquired on waivers from the Miami Dolphins on 11-26-82...originally the second of two Dolphins' seventh round draft choices in '82...he led all Dolphin rushers in preseason (164-43-1 TD, 3.8-yard avg.)...also had four receptions for 29 yards and a 14.7-yard average on three preseason kickoff returns...he played three regular season games with Miami before being waived when the Dolphins had defensive line needs and signed former Patriot NT Richard Bishop...Larry saw action in six regular season games with the Patriots as he played on special teams.

COLLEGE: Led Jackson State to a 9-1-1 record as a senior with 546 yards on 129 carries...had six rushing TDs...had a career rushing total of 2,018 yards and 16 TDs on 357 carries...also had 20 career receptions for 182 yards...played in 1982 Blue Gray game.

PERSONAL: Single...next-to-youngest in family of nine children...counts working-out, bowling and softball among his favorite pastimes...majored in Industrial Arts.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982-9/0, (three with Dolphins and six with Patriots).



GEORGE CRUMP 91

DE 6-4 260
EAST CAROLINA 2nd year
DOB: 7-22-59 at Portsmouth, VA
HOW ACQUIRED: D-4a, 1982

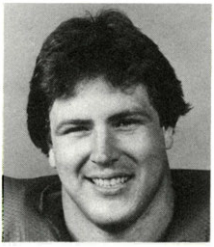
PRO: George made some big plays during his rookie campaign, as he played in a substitution role at DE and on special teams...he was in on 13 tackles and recorded two QB pressures in '82...also recorded one QB sack for 20 yards and a safety in Patriots' 29-21 victory vs. Houston (11-28-82)...saw plenty of action at Pittsburgh (12-26-82) and in Patriots' playoff game at Miami (1-8-83), as he replaced starter Ken Sims who came out of both games with injuries...recorded three tackles and five assists in Patriots' 28-13 playoff loss at Miami...was the third of three defensive linemen taken by the Patriots in the 1982 draft.

COLLEGE: George and Patriots' RB Tony Collins were teammates for three seasons while at East Carolina...he recorded 119 career tackles and eight sacks, including six as a soph...played both DE and DT for the Pirates, starting at right DT as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: Married (Jacqueline)...plans to complete degree in Industrial Tech. during pro offseasons...spent past offseason making speaking engagements in his hometown of Chesapeake, VA...lists fishing, boating and basketball among his favorite pastimes...played basketball, track and football at Indian River High School in Chesapeake.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982-9/0.

STATS: Recorded one safety (sack) for-20 yds. vs. Houston 11-28-82.



BOB CRYDER 75

OG 6-4 282
ALABAMA 6th year
DOB: 9-7-56 at East St. Louis, IL
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1, 1978

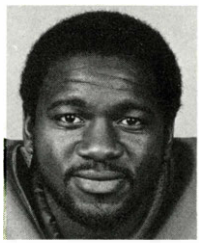
PRO: Bob will enter the 1983 campaign as the starter at left guard...he started the first two games of '82 and then saw limited action due to a knee injury that required post-season arthroscopic surgery...an avid weight trainer, he improved his overall strength and increased his body weight 20 lbs. prior to the start of the '82 season...Bob earned a starting spot on the Patriots' front wall in 1981 and started 15 games...missed only the Washington contest (10-25-81) with a minor knee injury suffered in a mid-week practice...started two games at right guard in place of Sam Adams in both 1979 and 1980 before winning the starting post there prior to the start of the '81 campaign...along with fellow linemates and first round draft picks, OC Pete Brock (76) and OG John Hannah (73), Bob helped form a kickoff return wedge that helped spring former Patriot Horace Ivory on many of his long returns that made him the NFL's top kickoff returner in 1980...Bob's sophomore campaign (1979) was much more successful than his rookie year in that he was active for all 16 games...as a promising rookie, he was placed on injured reserve after five games following surgery for a chronic wrist injury...he rebounded to add great depth to the offensive line and started the final two games (vs. NY Jets and Minn.) at RG after Sam Adams injured an ankle...as Patriots' top choice in 1978 draft, he was the 18th overall selection.

COLLEGE: Followed in the footsteps of former Patriot linemate, John Hannah at Alabama...while a strong side guard in the Tide's wishbone, he showed his versatility by playing tackle in the Senior Bowl...won Jacobs Award as a senior for being top blocker in SEC...timed at 5.1 in 40 and at 2.8 in the 20.

PERSONAL: Single...spends pro offseasons travelling between Foxboro and hometown of O'Fallon, Il (St. Louis suburb), where he is an active businessman...owns and operates a restaurant—"Marilyn's Pie Pantry" and a clothing store—"Casual Wear, Ltd" in Illinois...also works part-time for an oil company in the New England area as a marketing rep.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1978-5/0, (On injured reserve 10-6 through remainder of '78 season), 1979-16/2, 1980-16/2, 1981-15/15, 1982-9/3, Total: 61/22.

STATS: Fumble Recoveries: 1979-1.



LIN DAWSON 87

TE 6-3 240
N. CAROLINA STATE 3rd year
DOB: 6-24-59 at Norfolk, VA
HOW ACQUIRED: D-8b, 1981

PRO: Lin started in four of the eight games played in 1982, alternating with Don Hasselbeck...both players also teamed up as important cogs in the Patriots' powerful double TE formation...with 13 receptions for 160 yards, Lin was the Patriots' fourth leading receiver last year...his only TD reception of the year, covering 23 yards, opened the Patriots' scoring at Pittsburgh in a game on 12-26-82...as a rookie, he led the Patriots in receiving during the preseason with nine catches for 107 yards and two TDs...missing only one game with a sore heel, he started three times as a rookie, including each of the last two games after regular starter Don Hasselbeck succumbed to knee surgery...was a regular on special teams in his first campaign and recorded eight tackles.

COLLEGE: Played in all 44 games while with Wolfpack, finishing college career as the school's ninth all-time leading receiver...although NC State was not a pass-oriented team, Lin caught 11 passes for 116 yds. and one

TD...was a key member of Wolfpack offense in '79 finishing second on reception list with 15 catches for 201 yds. and one TD, the year NC State won the ACC championship.

PERSONAL: Single...in the process of completing a degree in Speech and Communication...the youngest in a family of three boys, Lin is deeply committed to a variety of religious programs and someday plans to enter seminary school...has spent the past off seasons travelling along the East Coast speaking to various civic and religious organizations while serving as a field representative for Sports World Ministry...is an Associate Minister at Mt. Sinai Holy Temple in Columbus, OH where his brother, Rev. Harry Bellinger, is the pastor...a substitute teacher in his hometown Kinston (NC) school system, Lin is also a popular speaker in the SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) Program...he also finds time to be the director of his own sports camp.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1981-15/3, 1982-8/4, Total: 23/7.

PAUL DOMBROSKI 47

DB 6-0 185
LINFIELD (OR) 4th year
DOB: 8-8-56 at Sumter, SC
HOW ACQUIRED: W-Kansas City, 1981

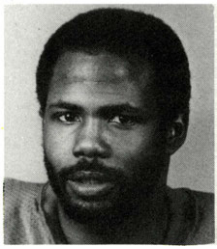
PRO: Paul was the Patriots' leading special teams tackler in 1982...for his efforts, he was named the 1982 1776 Fan Club's Special Teams Player-of-the-Year...he was in on 30 tackles and recorded one pass deflection and recovered one fumble in '82...Ron Meyer says, "Paul is a leader on special teams who has a keen knack for finding the ball carrier on coverage teams"...he also saw spot duty playing in Nickel and Six back defensive alignments...Paul was claimed on waivers from Kansas City after nine games of the '81 season (11-12-81)...played with the Chiefs during '80 and for five games in '81, but was hurt in a game against Patriots (10-4-81) and was placed on injured reserve...when the Chiefs attempted to reactivate him by placing him on procedural waivers, he was claimed by the Patriots.

COLLEGE: Began his college career at Hawaii, but transferred to Linfield (OR) College, a Division II school to finish his career...as a senior DB he tied for second in the nation with 13 interceptions...named to the Kodak Division III and NAIA Division II first team All-America teams, as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...lives on the island of Oahu in Hawaii during pro off-seasons...plans to attend graduate school and pursue an MBA...enjoys skin diving and volleyball...attended Leilehua High School in Wahiawa.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1980-16/1, 1981-11/0, 1982-9/0, Total: 36/1.

STATS: Interceptions: 1980-one for six yds. Kickoff Returns: 1981-three for 66 yds., 1982-one for 19 yds.



VAGAS FERGUSON 43

RB 6-0 213
NOTRE DAME 3rd year
DOB: 3-6-57 at Richmond, IN
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1b, 1980

PRO: A training camp hamstring pull was the start of a 1982 injury streak that seriously limited Vagas' playing time last year...he played in the first two regular season games, but reinjured his leg in the first practice following the end of the player strike...he then spent time on the Commissioner's Special

Roster Exemption list before being placed on injured reserve (12-1) for the rest of the year...after making an immediate impact as the Patriots' top rusher as a rookie in 1980, Vagas suffered a slow start the next year by injuring his right ankle in the preseason finale against Washington (8-30)...he then missed the first three regular season games and saw spot duty in the season's fourth game at Pittsburgh (9-27)...the following week, Vagas had his top performance of his second pro campaign, rushing for 62 yards on nine carries vs. Kansas City (10-4)...in addition to starting in the Patriots' 38-10 win over Houston (10-18), he also started the final four games of the season...over the last five weeks of the season, he ran 42 times for 191 yards and two TDs for a 4.54 average per rush...his 340 yards on 78 carries was second on the team behind rookie Tony Collins' 873-yard effort...starting all 16 games as a rookie in 1980, Vagas set a club mark for rushing yards in a rookie season, 818, which was broken by Collins the next year...his 1980 rushing effort still ranks as the fifth best season rushing total in club history...his 211 carries accounted for 35.9% of the club's 588 rushing attempts while his team-leading 818 yards was 36.5% of the team total of 2,240 rushing yards in 1980...along with FB Don Calhoun, Vagas was a catalyst in the Patriots' ground attack that ranked second in the AFC in team rushing in '81...he finished sixth among AFC rushers and only rookie sensations Billy Sims, Detroit and Joe Cribbs, Buffalo, rushed for more yards as rookies that year...in a Monday night win over Denver (9-29), Vagas rushed 22 times, a personal and team high for 1980, and scored his first pro TD, a two yard jaunt...his 44-yard run in a 34-0 win over Miami (10-12) setup a TD and was the Patriots' longest run from scrimmage of the year...had his best day in a 47-21 romp of Baltimore (11-23) when he rushed 17 times for 100 yards (5.9) to join Calhoun in becoming the first Patriot duo to both rush for over 100 yards in the same game...although he did not do much receiving in Notre Dame's I formation, Vagas caught 22 passes for 173 yards as a rookie to finish sixth on the Patriots' receiving chart...chosen as the 25th overall player in the 1980 draft, Vagas was the second of two first round picks (Roland James the other) tabbed by the Patriots in 1980...was selected with a first round pick acquired as part of the trade of Leon Gray to Houston...named Rookie of the Year by 1776 Fan Club.

COLLEGE: Notre Dame's all-time career rushing leader...holds several school rushing records including most yards in a game (255 vs. Georgia Tech, '78) most rushing TDs in a season (17, '79) and most yards in a career (3,472 on a school record 673 carries)...placed fifth in Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior.

PERSONAL: Married (Berline)....became a father in March, 1983 when son Vontez was born...received a B.A. in Economics in Spring, 1980...has spent the two offseasons training as a systems analyst at IBM...actively involved in the Patriots' offseason conditioning program, Vagas has gained 18 lbs. since his rookie season and has slightly improved his 40-yard dash time...his given name is Vasquero Diaz but he was nicknamed Vagas by his grandmother.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1980-16/16, 1981-13/5, 1982-2/0, (On injured reserve 12-1 through remainder of 82 season), Total: 31/21.

TOM FLICK 10

QB 6-1 190
WASHINGTON 3rd year
DOB: 8-30-58 at Patuxent River, MD
HOW ACQUIRED: T-Wash., 1982

PRO: Tom was acquired in a 1982 preseason trade (8-25-82) with the Washington Redskins for QB Tom Owen...he was originally the Redskins' fourth round draft choice in 1981...Tom was active for the Patriots' final two preseason games, but did not play...he was on the Patriots' inactive list for the first two regular season games, while being active for the final seven and playing in three...his only action at QB came at Pittsburgh (12-26-82), when he guided the offense for three second half series before being replaced by Matt Cavanaugh...Tom passed for 143 yards (13 of 27) in six regular season appearances while with Washington...his top game of '81 was a 118 yard passing performance (12 of 22) vs. San Francisco (10-4-81).

COLLEGE: Tom red-shirted one season and finally got his chance at the end of his junior season and ended with 13 wins in his 16 career starts for the Huskies...led the team to the PAC-10 Championship and received AP All-America honorable mention recognition as a senior...his 60 per cent career completion mark is a school record...his top game came vs. Arizona, when he completed 16 of 17 passes for 230 yards and three TDs (1980)...Tom passed for 3,171 yards and 24 TDs while at UW.

PERSONAL: Single...received degree in communications from UW in 1981...worked for the Port of Seattle in the Information/Marketing Department during past offseason...brother Joe is a retired professional skier and James is resident pro skier at Sun Valley...lists windsurfing, juggling and sailing among his favorite pastimes...Born in Patuxent River, MD, while his father, a Navy pilot was stationed there.

TIM GOLDEN 59

LB 6-1 220
FLORIDA 2nd year
DOB: 11-15-59 at Pahokee, FL
HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1982

PRO: Tim performed well on special teams during his first NFL campaign as he was in on nine tackles...Tim was originally signed as a free agent by the Patriots in 1981, but he left training camp after three days...he was reinstated on 4-26-82...beat out LBs Bill Matthews (traded to NY Giants) and Bob Golic (waived and claimed by Cleveland) for 1982 active roster spot.

COLLEGE: Played as a DE for the Gators as a junior and a senior...was a LB his first two collegiate campaigns...a starter for three years, he led team as a junior with 100 tackles...as a senior, he had 49 tackles, 49 assists, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and caused three fumbles.

PERSONAL: Single...worked as a substitute teacher in Ft. Lauderdale (FL) during past offseason...graduated December '81 with a degree in Broadcasting from Florida...enjoys reading and watching television.

STEVE GROGAN 14

QB 6-4 210
KANSAS STATE 9th year
DOB: 7-24-53 at San Antonio, TX
HOW ACQUIRED: D-5a, 1975

PRO: While he lost his starting role to Matt Cavanaugh at the end of the '82 preseason and did not play in the first three regular season games, Steve re-emerged as the starter for the final six games...he immediately revived the Patriots' explosive passing attack, hitting Stanley Morgan with a 62-yard TD pass in just his third play against Houston (11-28)...he tossed two more TDs that day, completed 10 of 16 passes and led the Patriots to a 29-21 win to start them on the road to a playoff spot...in his six starts, the Patriots were 4-2...already the club record holder for career completions (1,189), career passing yardage (17,415) and career interceptions (144), all which he set last season, Steve can break two more club career marks held by Babe Parilli this year...he needs 104 passing attempts to pass Parilli's mark of 2,413 and 12 TD passes to break his club record total of 132 career TD tosses...behind Grogan, the Patriots finished with the highest average yards per completion mark (15.3) in the NFL for the second year in a row...finished the year as the fourth rated passer in the AFC and seventh in the entire NFL...his TD percentage of 5.7 was second to only Terry Bradshaw in the AFC and third in the whole NFL...he also had the league's fourth lowest interception percentage (3.3)...gaining 42 yards on nine carries in '82, Steve is now the Patriots' seventh ranked all-time rusher with 1,941 yards...he needs just 77 rushing yards to move past former Patriot RB Andy Johnson for sixth place on the club's all-time rushing chart...the first time that Steve takes the field in 1983, he will be playing in his 100th pro game and his next start will be the 93rd of his career...in the second game of 1981, Steve was forced out of action at Philadelphia with a neck injury that knocked him out of the starting lineup for the next four games...in the 11th game of the year, he suffered a left knee injury when tackled by Jet DE Mark Gastineau and he was lost for the rest of the 1981 campaign...he had a stellar performance in a narrow 28-24 loss to the Jets at New York on 10-11-81 with 11:29 to play in the third period, he came off the bench to replace an ineffective Matt Cavanaugh and finished the day by completing 19 of 32 passes for 330 yards and one TD...he also threw for 355 yards vs. Miami (11-8-81) and 306 yards at Washington on 10-25-81...his 76-yard TD pass to Stanley Morgan vs. Miami on 11-8-81 was the longest completion of his career...with a league leading 8.61 yards per attempt mark in 1981, he became only the second player since the AFL-NFL merger to lead the NFL in the category for two consecutive years...Terry Bradshaw also accomplished that fete in 1977 and 1978...caught a sixteen yard pass from Andy Johnson on an option pass for a first down in the season opener vs. Baltimore (9-6-81) and hauled in another pass from Johnson for nine yards at Oakland (11-1)...leading the AFC in passing for the first seven weeks of the 1980 season, Steve was off to a fast start that was slowly and painfully halted by two knee injuries...over the first seven games, he completed 98 of 156 passes (62.8%) for 1,398 yards and 11 TDs in leading the Patriots to six wins in their first seven starts...a sprained left knee suffered in Seattle (9-21) and a sprained right knee incurred the following week vs. Denver (9-29) began to take their toll as Steve began to lose his feared mobility by the season's midway point...in the season's 12th game, he finally sat down to rest the ailing knees and in doing so, he had a five-year, 76 consecutive regular season game starting streak snapped...in that game, Matt Cavanaugh led the Patriots to a 47-21 win over Baltimore (11/23) but he too injured his left knee...the following week, Steve started once again, but threw a career high six interceptions in a 21-17 loss at San Francisco...that would mark his final action in the '80 season...Steve led the Patriots to seven wins while having the best day of his six year career at Houston on 11-10...in a last minute 38-34 loss to the Oilers, he completed 25 of 39 passes for 374 yards and 3 TDs...the Patriots third ranked rusher with 112 yards on 30 carries, he also broke QB coach Babe Parilli's club record (55.3%) for passing completion percentage in a season with a 57.2% mark...in 1979, his first year of calling approximately 90% of his own plays, he tied with Brian Sipe of Cleveland for NFL leadership in TD passes (28) while topping the league in TD percentage (6.6) and rushing by a QB (368 yards on 62 attempts)...his 3,286 passing yards that year was the second best seasonal performance in club history behind only Parilli's 3,465 yards in 1964...on the year, he had four games in which he passed for over 300 yards...his outstanding efforts in 1979 won him the Patriots' MVP Award as voted by the 1776 Fan Club...underwent minor knee (right) surgery in April, 1980 and was working out only a few days later..had an incredible day in leading Patriots to a record setting 56-3 win over the Jets (9-9-79), completing 13 of 18 passes (72.2%) for 315 yards and 5 TDs...threw for over 200 yards on five occasions during 1978, including another stellar job against the Jets (10-29-78) that saw him hit on 15 passes for 281 yards and 4 TDs...his 539 rushing yards enabled the Patriots to become the first team ever to have four members of the same backfield break the 500-yard rushing mark in the same campaign (1978)...completed a herculean task of calling every one of the Patriots 922 offensive plays in 1977...his 13 rushing TDs in 1976, beating previous high mark for NFL QBs, established "Grogs" as the game's most feared running QB...as a rookie, he played in 13 games, starting in seven of the last eight contests...had the second best day of his pro career that year vs. Buffalo (11-23-75), completing 25 of 46 attempts for 365 yards...was the 116th player chosen in the 1975 draft.

COLLEGE: Started for K-State as a junior and senior...during career completed 166 of 371 attempts for 2213 yards, 12 TDs and 26 interceptions...also ran for additional 585 yards and six TDs on 339 tries during that span...part-time punter as a junior and senior, hitting seven punts for 279 yards (39.9 avg.)...caught a 22-yard TD pass as a senior.

PERSONAL: Married (Robbie)...father of two sons, Tyler (3) and Tanner (1)...raised in Ottawa, KS...his father Jim is still a high school teacher and coach there...spends much of the offseason making appearances and participating in variety of charity events...one of the team's best golfers.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1975-13/7, 1976-14/14, 1977-14/14, 1978-16/16, 1979-16/16, 1980-12/12, (Had a 76 consecutive game starting streak), 1981-8/7, 1982-6/6, Total: 99/92.

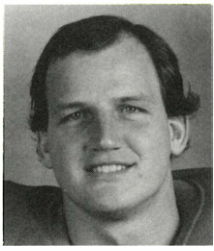
DARRYL HALEY 68

OT 6-4 265
UTAH 2nd year
DOB: 2-16-61 at Gardena, CA
HOW ACQUIRED: D-2c, 1982

PRO: After seeing considerable action on the offensive line during the 1982 preseason, Darryl played primarily on special teams during the regular season...has outstanding physical characteristics and athletic ability...an extremely promising offensive lineman, who has palyed both OG and OT...has the ability to long snap in special teams situations...played in all nine games during his rookie campaign...Darryl was the third of three Patriots' second round draft choices in 1982...he was the 55th player selected overall and was taken with one of two second round picks acquired from San Francisco in exchange for the Patriots' second round choice in '82.

COLLEGE: Darryl was the first player from the University of Utah ever drafted by the Patriots...was the third youngest player selected in the '82 draft...became a starting OG as a senior...played both football and basketball during his senior year...played in the Olympia Gold Bowl and received Honorable Mention All-Wac recognition as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...continues to work on a degree in Commercial Physical Education and minor in Marketing during pro offseasons...spends much of his offseason time visiting schools for handicapped children...resides in the Salt Lake/Holiday area (Utah)...enjoys basketball and jogging.



DON HASSELBECK 80

TE 6-7 245
COLORADO 7th year
DOB: 4-1-55 at Cincinnati, OH
HOW ACQUIRED: D-2b, 1977

PRO: Alternating with Lin Dawson, Don started five of nine games as well as the playoff game at Miami...finished third in receptions with 15 for 158 yards and one TD...that TD, a two yarder along the back of the end zone, sealed a 30-19 win over Buffalo that propelled the Patriots to their first playoff appearance in four years...had five catches in each of the last two games — Pittsburgh (12-6) and Buffalo (1-2-83)...in the 28-13 playoff loss at Miami (1-8-83), he had seven receptions for 87 yards and the Patriots' lone TD (22 yards)...starting the first 14 games of 1981, he missed the final two games with a right knee injury suffered at Miami (12-6) that required postseason surgery...even though he missed two contests, he grabbed 46 passes, one shy of the club record for a tight end set by Jim Whalen in 1968...his 808 reception yards was a club mark for a tight end and was second on the team to only Stanley Morgan's club record 1,029-yard total...all in all, his reception total and reception yardage output in 1981 was more than his combined effort in his previous four pro seasons...his 17.6 reception yardage average was tops of any NFL tight end and it was the fifth best mark among all AFC receivers...on opening day against Baltimore (9-6-81), he caught six passes for 111 yards and one TD, marking his first ever 100-yard receiving effort in a game....on the year, he turned in another three 100-yard receiving games, including his top game of the year, a seven reception for 139-yard and one TD total against the NY Jets (10-11-81)...Hass also produced several long gainers, including five receptions over 30 yards (51, 44, 43, 38 and 33 yards)...in 1979 and 1980, he made five starts in place of the injured Russ Francis and although he had only 130 yards and eight receptions in '80, four of the receptions went for TDs...in the third game of that year (at Seattle, 9-21), Hass subbed for Francis late in the game and pulled in a 16-yard TD pass from Steve Grogan with less than three minutes to play to ice a 37-31 come-from-behind win for the Patriots...at 6-7, Hass is one of the team's tallest players and uses his height for great blocking leverage, particularly in two and three tight end formations...the 52nd player taken in the 1977 NFL draft, Hass started off with a splash his rookie campaign, hauling in nine passes, four of them for TDs.

COLLEGE: Started every game for the Buffs in his four years at Boulder after earning starting TE spot with two games remaining in frosh campaign...ranks fourth on all-time CU reception list...Fine Arts major at CU.

PERSONAL: Married (Betsy)...father of three sons, Matthew (8), Tim (5) and Nathaniel (2)...an accomplished artist and metal sculptor, Don was a big hit at a one man Boston art show in 1979 and joined fellow artist and former Boston Celtic great Tom Heinsohn for a two-man art show at the Spectrum Gallery in New York City...attended Rhode Island School of Design...spends his free time painting, running and biking...active on the Patriots' basketball team and enjoys hitch-hiking...has run in several area road races...finished third in the super heavyweight category (240 lbs. and over) and 966th out of 5,000 entrants in the 1981 Shamrock Classic.

GAMES PLAYED STATED: 1977-14/1, 1978-16/1, 1979-16/4, 1980-16/2, 1981-14/14 (placed on IR 12-11 through remainder of '81 season, right knee injury), 1982-9/5, Total: 85/27.

MIKE HAYNES 40

CB 6-2 202
ARIZONA STATE 8th year
DOB: 7-1-53 at Dennison, TX
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1a, 1976

PRO: Mike regained his all-pro status once again last season, being named to the Pro Bowl for the sixth time in seven years...that award enabled him to set a club record along with OG John Hannah for most appearances in the Pro Bowl...to support his all-pro status, he led the Patriots in interceptions with four in 1982, including a pair at Seattle (12-19) in a 16-0 Patriot victory...Mike now needs just one interception to tie, and two to break, Ron Hall's club record for career interceptions (28)...he also finished second on the team to Ray Clayborn in pass deflections with nine while causing two fumbles as well...he was sixth on the team and tops in the secondary on the tackle chart with 34 stops and 18 assists...in 1981, he started the first six games, but suffered a collapsed lung prior to the seventh game and then missed eight contests...after spending time on injured reserve, he was reactivated for the final two games and saw spot duty...feared for his outstanding coverage and run defense ability, he was involved in 22 tackles and had six assists on the year...his lone interception of the year came against Kansas City (10-4) and with the steal he set up a 43-yard FG by John Smith...Mike missed the entire preseason and first three games of 1980 in a contract dispute, but signed a new contract on 9-23-80 and was activated on 9-29-80...he saw limited duty that day against Denver, but started the remaining 12 games beginning with the NY Jets contest...in the game, he raced 65 yards with a blocked FG attempt to score a TD that led to the Patriots' 21-11 victory over the Jets at Shea (10-5)...that was the first time such a feat was accomplished by a Patriot since 1972...had 38 initial hits and four assists in '80 while leading the squad with two fumble recoveries...his lone interception of the year came in Baltimore on 10-19...beginning his rookie season, he made 58 consecutive starts before rib and hand injuries kept him out of the starting lineup of the 15th game in '79...was the club's top interceptor for three straight years (1976-78) before Ray Clayborn snapped his streak in '79...Mike finished as runnerup in the department with three steals that year...his only interception return for a TD came at Baltimore on 11-26-78, good for 31 yards and the game's first score...has returned only 28 punts in the past four seasons, but still ranks as the Patriots' all-time punt return leader with a 10.44 career return average (111 returns, only eight fair catches for 1,159 yards and two TDs)...first player in club history to return a punt for a TD, scampering 89 yards vs. Buffalo on 11-7-76...he repeated the feat three weeks later with a 62-yard punt return for a score vs. Denver (11-28-76)...had his best day in '79 at Baltimore (10-28) when he made eight tackles and recovered a fumble...on the year, he registered 50 tackles, eight pass deflections, and three interceptions...had six interceptions in '78 to rank third in AFC...added 28 tackles on the year...relies on great speed, quickness and range to cover the best receivers in the league...was the fifth player overall and first defensive back taken in 1976 draft...was joined by former secondary mate Tim Fox and OC Pete Brock as the first of three Patriot first round choices that year...enjoyed an avalanche of post-season accolades following his rookie year ranging from Pro Bowl appearance to Bert Bell Award...wrote seven new club punt return records in first year as a pro...tops in AFC and second in NFL in punt returns as a rookie (45 returns for 608-yard, 2 TDs and 13.5 avg.)

COLLEGE: Considered to be the nation's top defensive back as a junior and senior, Mike played under Frank Kush at Arizona State and was a consensus All-America...earned all-WAC status at both DB and as a kick returner three straight years...ranked 11th (just ahead of Tim Fox) in nation as punt returner during senior year...was selected as defensive MVP in '76 Japan Bowl and MVP in 1973 Fiesta Bowl.

PERSONAL: Married (Julie)...father of two sons, Aaron (4) and Jared (2)...active in FCA and team Bible study sessions...raised in Los Angeles...received a B.S. in Business Administration in May, 1982...spent the past offseason working for a Boston firm as a investment analysis trainee...his brother Reggie played for the Washington Redskins for two years (1977-78)...hopes to pursue an MBA degree in the future.

SHELBY JORDAN 74

OT 6-7 280
WASHINGTON (MO) 8th year
DOB: 1-23-52 at St. Louis
HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1974

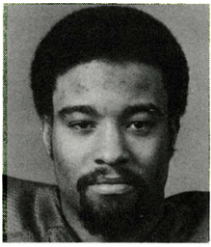
PRO: One of the key reasons in the Patriots finish as the NFL's second best rushing team in 1982 was the play of Shelby...with prototype size, arm reach and strength, Shelby is a pivotal part of the Patriots' off-tackle and outside running game...he has started 45 consecutive games while starting in 70 of a possible 73 games over the past five seasons...his only missed starts came late in the '79 season when he injured a knee at Denver (11-11)...he missed the next two starts and saw limited action in the next game...Shelby then started the final two games of '79...originally the seventh round choice of Houston in 1973, Shelby had a whirlwind pro grid start...having played on defense through four years of college, he was selected as an OT...he was first placed on the Oilers' taxi squad, then on injured reserve and eventually waived...let go by the Oilers, he accepted a managerial trainee position with a retailing company in Downer's Grove, IL...grappling with the idea of his ability to play pro ball, Shelby made another attempt at it when he signed a free agent contract with the Patriots in April, 1974...he was impressive in training camp, but an injury sidelined him for the entire season...started all 14 games of the '75 season in place of the injured Tom Neville...after missing the '76 season, he returned to play in ten games the next year...Shelby then earned his starting role in '78 and the Patriots set the NFL's all-time team mark for rushing yards in a season (3,165)...the Patriots were also the total offense leaders that year in the NFL.

COLLEGE: Small College All-America at Washington University in St. Louis...played as DT his first three seasons before switching to LB...first player ever from Washington U. (MO) to be drafted in NFL.

PERSONAL: Married (Donzella)...has one son, Shelby II (4)...both he and his wife are pursuing MBA degrees at Bryant College, summer training home of the Patriots...owner and president of Gladstone Springs Bottled Water, Inc., a Narragansett, RI based company that bottles natural spring water from a historic spring site that dates back to the late 1800's...active with the RI Special Olympics and the Meeting Street School...received an honorary citation from the State of Rhode Island citing his example of teamwork and sportsmanship on the Patriots...was nominated by teammates for the Bryon Whizzer White Award in 1979...also on the United Way's speaker's bureau.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1974-on injured reserve for entire season, 1975-14/14, 1976-0/0, 1977-10/3, 1978-16/16, 1979-14/13, 1980-16/16, 1981-16/16, 1982-9/9, Total: 95/87.

STATS: Fumble Recoveries: 1975-one for 12 yds., 1979-1.



KEITH LEE 22

DB 5-11 193
COLORADO STATE 3rd year
DOB: 12-22-57 at San Antonio, TX
HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1981

PRO: Keith is a talented DB who can play at both corner and safety...when Roland James went down with injury problems late in the season, Keith started at the SS spot at Pittsburgh (12-26-82), vs. Buffalo (1-2-83) and in the Patriots' '83 playoff game at Miami (1-8-83)...Keith was in on 19 tackles in '82...a tough competitor, he is a contributor on special teams...originally the second of two fifth round draft picks of the Buffalo Bills in 1980...was a college QB and was switched to DB...spent the entire '80 training camp with the Bills and was placed on injured reserve (knee) on 8-21-80...returned to Bills' summer camp in '81, but was cut on the next to last roster reduction (50 players) on 8-25-81...was brought in by the Patriots for a tryout and was signed on 8-28-81...started for the first time vs. Houston (10-18-81) for the injured Mike Haynes (lung) and won a game ball...he recorded six tackles and one interception in that game...had 20 tackles and 14 assists on the year...was active for all 16 regular season games in '81, played in 15 and started six, but was continually nagged by groin and abdominal injuries that limited his effectiveness.

COLLEGE: After a two year stint at Santa Monica (CA) J.C., he transferred to Colorado State where he played two years at QB...during that time, he completed 128 of 288 passes (44.0%) for 1,696 yds. and 11 TDs while throwing 16 interceptions...also rushed for 519 yds. and seven TDs...as a junior, he also played one game as a WR.

PERSONAL: Married (Karetta)...is the father of one son, Lamar James (1)...is working to complete degree in Physical Education during pro off-seasons...enjoys participating in all types of charities...lists fishing, hunting, and camping among his favorite pastimes.

FRED MARION 31

FS 6-2 191
MIAMI (FL) 2nd year
DOB: 8-2-59 at Gainesville, FL
HOW ACQUIRED: D-5, 1982

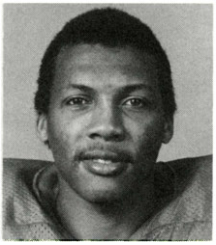
PRO: Fred is a great open field tackler who has a keen sense for the ball...Ron Meyer says, "Fred is a bonafide special teams contributor and a solid backup at the FS spot"...he recorded seven tackles, four assists, two pass deflections and recovered one fumble in his rookie campaign...had his best game in Patriots' 30-19 victory over the Bills (1-2-83), when he recorded three tackles and two pass deflections...will continue to press for a starting spot in Patriots' defensive backfield in the future.

COLLEGE: Led the Hurricanes in interceptions in '80 and '81 on way to setting school record for career pickoffs (16)...recorded 237 career tackles...also returned 62 punts for 392 yards...turned in stellar performance in nationally televised 17-14 victory over top ranked Penn State senior year...had ten tackles and two interceptions in that game...intercepted two passes in '82 Hula Bowl and one in '82 Senior Bowl...both he and teammate NT Lester Williams were consensus All-America picks from Miami (FL) in '82...played in '82 Olympia Gold Bowl.

PERSONAL: Married (Anne)...father of one daughter, Monica Nicole (1)...is working to complete a degree in Business Management during pro off-seasons...older brother Frank plays LB for the NY Giants...lists outdoor sports including horseback riding and fishing among his favorite hobbies...was North Florida Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year in '75 and played DB and LB at Bucholz High School in Gainesville, FL.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982-9/0.

STATS: Fumble Recoveries: 1982-1.



LARRY McGREW 50

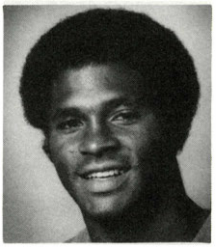
OLB 6-5 233
USC 3rd year
DOB: 7-23-57 at Berkeley, CA
HOW ACQUIRED: D-2, 1980

PRO: After spending the entire 1981 campaign on injured reserve with a knee injury suffered in training camp, Larry earned the starting left outside LB role last year...one of the three new starting linebackers, he made an immediate impact in the team's defensive performance, finishing tied with DE Ken Sims as the team's fourth ranked tackler (24 stops, 48 assists)...he missed only the final game of the year with an ankle sprain, but returned to play in the playoff loss at Miami on 1-8-83...one of the better athletes on the team, Larry has outstanding pass coverage ability and is also a pass rushing threat who had eight QB pressures and 1½ sacks...was placed on injured reserve (12-19) for the remainder of the '80 season with a right elbow injury sustained against the Dolphins at the Orange Bowl (12-8)...during '80 he backed up Rod Shoate at the ROLB spot...saw limited action at the linebacker spot...played on special teams...during his rookie year, Larry recorded 17 tackles, six assists, one sack for -10 yds. and one pass deflection...considered by the Patriots to be one of the top linebacking prospects in the '80 draft, Larry was the 45th player chosen overall and the sixth linebacker taken.

COLLEGE: USC coaches voted him as defensive MVP in '79...made 138 tackles in three years...started in two Rose Bowl games, made six tackles in 17-10 win over Michigan in '79 and five tackles in 17-16 win over Ohio State in '80...career high of 10 tackles came against Notre Dame as a junior...played in '80 Japan Bowl...spent frosh year at Contra Costa Junior College.

PERSONAL: Married (Elaine) and father of one son, Lawrence (2)... graduated in Spring, 1980 with a degree in Speech Communications...has graduate school aspirations in Business...enjoys basketball, bike riding and coaching Little League Baseball.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1980-11/0, 1981-On injured reserve for the entire season, 1982-8/8, Total: 19/8.



STANLEY MORGAN 86

WR 5-11 181
TENNESSEE 7th year
DOB: 2-17-55 at Easley, SC
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1b, 1977
PRO BOWL: 1980, 1981

PRO: Possibly the greatest deep receiving threat in the NFL today, Stanley continues to add to his already impressive receiving statistics...leading the Patriots for the third straight year in reception yardage, he grabbed a team high 28 passes in '82 for 584 yards, three TDs and a 20.9 average...Stanley now ranks third on the Patriots' all-time reception list with 216 career catches, behind only Gino Cappelletti (292) and Jim Colclough (283)...his 1982 yardage total also moved Stanley into the second spot on the club's all-time reception yardage chart...with 4,869 career yards, he needs just 133 yards to surpass Colclough (5,001 yards) as the Patriots' all-time reception yardage leader...not only is his 22.5 career reception average a Patriot record, it is also the highest ever in NFL history for all receivers with 200 or more career receptions...former receiving great Homer Jones is second to Morgan in that category with a 22.3 mark...over the last five weeks of the '82 season, Stanley had four games in which he had 100 or more yards receiving...in a loss to Pittsburgh (12-26), he grabbed a 75-yard TD pass from Matt Cavanaugh, the longest of the year in the AFC, and had a total of four catches on the day for 127 yards...unfortunately, he had a 71-yard TD reception called back on a holding penalty away from the play and an apparent 33-yard TD reception was ruled no good on a contested call that he was over the end line...had those two TDs been good, he would have had 231 yards on the day...his four 100-yard game in '82 raised his career total to 18, a club mark...Stanley also owns an unique mark in that he is the only NFL player to have averaged over 20.0 yards per reception in each of the last six seasons...in six games played against the Baltimore Colts from 1978-80, Stanley riddled the Colts for 21 receptions, 507 yards, a 24.1 reception average and five TDs (75, 62, 56,27 and 25 yards)...has started in 84 of a possible 87 games in his six year career...when he missed the opening game with a knee injury in 1981, it marked the end of a 62-game consecutive starting streak that began in his rookie year (1977)...Stanley ranks third in club history in career receiving TDs with 35, behind only Cappelletti (42) and Colclough (39)...he also holds the club mark for best career reception yardage average (22.5 yards)...Stanley ranks second to only Mike Haynes (111-1, 159-10.44) on the club's all-time career punt return chart with 960 yards and a 10.43 average on 92 returns...in the first four games of 1980, Stanley had five TD receptions, including two (68 and 40 yards) at Seattle (9-21-80) and the game winner (45 yards) the following week against Denver (9-29)...his longest reception of '80 was a 71-yarder at San Francisco (11-30) that set up a TD...although he missed a Pro Bowl berth following the past two seasons, he played in the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1980 seasons, scoring the AFC's lone TD in a 21-7 loss to the NFC in his most recent Pro Bowl visit...in only his third pro campaign, he joined Harold Jackson (1,013 yards) in becoming the first Patriot to cross the 1,000-yard receiving plateau in a season when he had 1,002 yards on 44 reception in 1979...his 12 receiving TDs that year led the league as did his 22.8 reception yard average...in a 50-21 thumping of Baltimore at Foxboro (11-18-79), Stanley returned a punt 80 yards for a TD, marking only the third time in club history that a punt was returned for a TD...his total TD production (13) in 1979 tied Steve Grogan's club mark of 13 set in 1976...in his second pro season (1978), he led the team with 820 yards receiving and was the team's top punt returner with 335 yards and 10.5-yard average on 32 returns...as a rookie, he returned in a stellar performance with 21 receptions (second on the club), the club's top reception average (21.1) and top punt return performance (16 for 220 yards and a 13.8 avg.)...his 13.8-yard punt return average was second best in the AFC that year...was named to the PFW all-rookie team and was tabbed as Rookie-of-the-Year by the Patriots' 1776 Fan Club...the 25th player overall and the first wide receiver taken in the 1977 NFL draft, Stanley joined CB Ray Clayborn (16th player taken) as one of two Patriot first round choices that year.

COLLEGE: Received countless awards after four year career with the Vols...played three different positions — WR, RB and WB...accounted for 4,713 yards while a collegian, averaging 9.2 yards every time he touched the ball.

PERSONAL: Married (Rholedia)...father of two daughters, Sanitra Nikole (7) and Monique (2)...received a B.S. in Education from Tennessee in 1979...spent four offseasons working for Industrial National (Fleet) Bank in Providence, RI...spent the most recent offseason in his new home in Memphis.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1977-14/14, 1978-16/16, 1979-16/16, 1980-16/16, 1981-13/13, 1982-9/9, Total 84/84. (Started 62 consecutive games in first four years of career before missing first two games of 1981 with a left knee sprain).

STEVE NELSON 57

ILB 6-2 230
NORTH DAKOTA STATE 10th year
DOB: 4-26-51 at Farmington, MN
HOW ACQUIRED: D-2b, 1974
PRO BOWL: 1981

PRO: The anchor on the Patriots' defense, Steve led the team in tackles for the fourth time in the last five seasons...on the year, he had 45 stops, 85 assists, three QB pressures and a deflected pass while starting all nine games...while missing only four starts in 57 games over the past four season, he has averaged 11.1 tackles per game...he had busy days against the Jets (9-19) turning in 11 stops and 11 assists, and against Houston (11-28) when he had six tackles, 10 assists and three QB pressures...separating his shoulder in the fourth game of 1981, he spent the next four games on injured reserve before returning to start every game...as a result, he lost a chance for the team tackle title, finishing fourth with 62 tackles and 64 assists...he earned his only Pro Bowl berth by topping the Patriots with 186 total tackles, well ahead of team runnerup Rod Shoate's 103 stops...although he did not record any interceptions last year, Nellie ranks 12th on the Patriots' all-time interceptions list with 13 career steals for 199 yards...in the fifth game of 1980, he blocked a FG attempt against the Jets (10-5) that was returned 65 yards by Mike Haynes for a TD...he had three interceptions in '80 that setup two scores and prevented another...against Miami (10-12-80) he stole one pass to setup a Patriot TD and repeated that feat against LA (11-16-80)...in a 47-21 romp over

Baltimore (11-23-80), he intercepted a Bert Jones' pass at the five-yard line to prevent a Colt score...always around the ball, "Nellie" had ten initial hits and seven assists at Seattle (9-21) and ten initial hits and eight assists against LA (11-16)...the Patriots' leading tackler in 1979 with 134 stops, he greatly outdistanced Tim Fox (70) who finished as runnerup on the Patriots' tackle chart...he preserved a Patriot 27-21 win over San Diego (9-23-79) when he intercepted a Dan Fouts pass at the goalline with just 1:30 remaining to be played...after making 33 tackles in the first four games of 1979, he suffered a concussion vs. Green Bay (10-1) that seemingly ended his activity for the year, but he returned two weeks later to start the last ten games of the year, averaging ten tackles per game...he also added two sacks in 1979...his top tackle performance came in the season finale vs. Minnesota (12-16) when he made 12 tackles...his team leading 98 tackles and four fumble recoveries earned him second team AP all-pro honors in 1978...started first 14 games of the year but knee injury vs. Dallas (12-3) sidelined him for final two games of '78 campaign...1977 was a banner year as he had 97 tackles and 4 sacks, while earning all-pro honors with the NY POST and Unsung Hero Award with 1776 Fan Club...started first ten games of 1976, but a dislocated kneecap suffered vs. Baltimore (11-14) held him out of last four games...returned to play in playoff game vs. Oakland...led team with 142 tackles while starting every game of '75...the 34th player taken in the 1974 draft, Nellie was the second of two Patriot second round choices, the other being OG Steve Corbett of Boston College...starting 11 games as a rookie, he was named the as Patriots' MVP and was the NEA Third Down Award recepient.

COLLEGE: Played his college ball at North Dakota State under then head coach Ron Erhardt...played both OLB and DE...served as team captain in 1973 and was team MVP in both '72 and '73.

PERSONAL: Married (Maria) father of four daughters, Cam (7), Casey (5), Caitlin (3) and Kelli (1)...selected as Patriots' recepient of the Miller Man-of-the-Year Award in both 1980 and 1981...presented with the Hyde Park Sportsman-of-the-Year Award this past winter for his efforts on the field and in the community...has spearheaded a continuing effort to raise funds for the Wrentham State School, a home for mentally handicapped children and adults...serving as co-chairman of a celebrity golf tournament to benefit the school over the past four years, his efforts have helped raise over $135,000 for the school's needs...enjoys outdoor activites including woodcutting, fishing and watching birds...would like to pursue a football coaching career after his playing career is over.

DENNIS OWENS 98

NT 6-1 258
N. CAROLINA ST. 2nd year
DOB: 2-24-60 at Clinton, NC
HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1982

PRO: Dennis may have been the team's biggest surprise in that he was the only rookie free agent to make the active roster in '82...was signed as a free agent on 5-13-82 and enjoyed a fine rookie training camp...his play and that of starting NT Lester Williams prompted the waiving of veteran NT Richard Bishop...during his rookie campaign, Dennis backed up Williams at NT and played DT in four man pass rush defenses...on the year, he recorded four tackles, four QB pressures and recovered one fumble...an avid weight trainer, he gained 20 lbs. after his senior year at North Carolina St...

COLLEGE: Played both right DT and MG during his tenure at N.C. State...recorded three QB sacks as a junior...ran a 4.8 40-yard dash as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...a Recreation Resources major at N.C. State, who is working to complete degree during pro offseasons...lists photography, hunting and fishing as his favorite pastimes...played football at Clinton High School in Clinton, NC, where he was an Honorable Mention All-America pick.

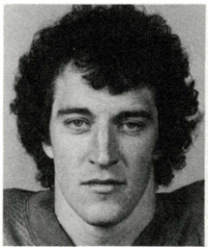
STATS: Fumble Recoveries: 1982-1.



RICK SANFORD 25

FS 6-1 192
SOUTH CAROLINA 5th year
DOB: 1-9-57 at Rock Hill, SC
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1, 1979

PRO: Rick made a smooth transition from his starting strong safety post of two seasons to the starting free safety spot in 1982...replacing six-year starter Tim Fox who was traded to San Diego, Rick produced two interceptions...at Chicago (12-5), he picked off a Jim McMahon pass at his own one, and raced 99 yards for a club record interception return for a TD...that effort was also the longest of the year in the NFL and the fourth longest in league history...he also added one other interception in a 16-0 win at Seattle (12-19)...his 23 tackles and 28 assists was the second best tackle total in the Patriots' secondary last year, just one behind secondary leader Mike Haynes...in addition to two pass deflections, he also had a fumble recovery at Pittsburgh (12-26)...that recovery raised his four-year career total to eight fumble recoveries, which includes a team high three in 1981...in 1981, he turned in 45 tackles and 38 assists while starting 14 games at strong safety...before Mike Haynes ended his contract holdout, Rick started the first four games of 1980 in his place at RCB...after playing the next six games as the Patriots' fifth back, he won the starting role at SS for the final six games...while shifting around the secondary, he turned in 45 initial hits and six assists...against Baltimore (11-23-80) he returned a fumbled kickoff return for 22 yards and six points...only one year earlier (11-18-79) against the same team, he became the first Patriot in ten years (Roland Moss vs. Buffalo, 11-14-71), to take a blocked punt back for a TD...he accomplished the feat by blocking Bucky Dilt's punt and rambling eight yards for the score...had a sack on a safety blitz vs. Baltimore (11-23-80)...as the 25th player taken in the '79 draft, he found himself shoring up the injured Patriots' secondary in making four starts...he started one game in place of the injured Haynes at RCB while starting three more at SS...he was the Patriot's second leading KO returner in 1979 behind fellow rookie Allan Clark, returning 10 kickoffs for 179 yards...in the Patriots' 26-6 win at Buffalo (11-4-79), Rick took a lateral from Rod Shoate after Shoate intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass and he returned it 27 yards to help set up the Patriots' go ahead FG...in the Patriots-Bills rematch (11-25-79), he recorded his first pro interception, returning the stolen aerial 12 yards...on the year, he had 28 tackles.

COLLEGE: Rick had been the highest NFL draft pick in school history since Alex Hawkins (2nd round-1959) until George Rogers was the first player taken in the 1981 NFL Draft...was the top DB taken in 1979 draft...a consensus All-America, he was a three-year starter for the Gamecocks, and turned in 112 career tackles...had nine career interceptions for 112 yards.

PERSONAL: Married (Sherri)...received a B.S. in Physical Education from So. Carolina in 1980...has also completed some degree work there for a Masters in Education...a versatile athlete, he enjoys racquetball, tennis, basketball and golf...one of the more active Patriots in the Special Olympics program, he served as Chairman of that charity's Deduct-A-Ski funding raising effort...was S. Carolina H.S. Athlete-of-the-Year in 1975...until he turned pro, Rick's parents never missed one of his athletic contests...they still travel from Rock Hill, SC to see three or four Patriot home games per season.

KENNETH SIMS 77

DE 6-5 271
TEXAS 2nd year
DOB: 10-31-59 at Kosse, TX
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1a, 1982

PRO: While he got off to a slow start, Ken rallied after the NFLPA strike to become the Patriots' most productive defensive lineman...he was the team's fourth rated tackler with 26 initial hits and 46 assists for 72 total tackles and tied for the team lead in QB sacks with 4½ for -32 yards...he also led the team in QB pressures with 13 and recorded one pass deflection and caused one fumble...Kenneth made a smooth transition from DT in a four-man front at Texas to DE in the Patriots' front three...he showed periods of excellent play and developed consistency during his first pro season...was in on seven tackles and recorded 2½ QB sacks in Patriots' 29-21 victory over Houston (11-28)...had a stellar performance in Patriots' 3-0 shutout victory vs. Miami (12-12)...in that game, he was in on 11 tackles and recorded one QB pressure...the following week, he was in on six tackles and recorded one QB sack, one QB pressure and caused one fumble as the Patriots' blanked the Seahawks 16-0 at the Kingdome (12-19).

COLLEGE: Everyone's top player available in the 1982 College draft, Kenneth was the first defensive linemen to be taken in the first round by the Patriots' since Phil Olsen of Utah State in 1970...he is only the second Patriot draft choice to be the top one taken in the draft overall with Jim Plunkett the first one in 1971...in the first quarter vs. TCU (11-14-81), the Longhorns' ninth game of the year, he suffered a broken fibula and sprained ligaments in his right ankle and missed the balance of the '81 campaign...despite the injury, he averaged 120 tackles a season (12 per game) as a starter over his junior and senior years...as a reserve during his frosh and soph seasons, he had 30 and 51 tackles, in those years, respectively, and 31 sacks, 96 QB pressures, 15 caused fumbles and seven fumble recoveries...one of four team co-captains, he helped the Longhorns hand Ron Meyer's SMU squad their only loss of 1981, by a 9-7 mark on 10-24...in that game he was responsible for 15 tackles and four sacks...was named to every All-America team, Lombardi trophy winner and was a runnerup in both the Heisman Trophy and Outland Trophy balloting senior year.

PERSONAL: Single...continued to work on degree in Education at Texas during past offseason...hobbies include rock climbing, fishing and golf,...was one of ten athletes who participated in the 1981 Fiesta Bowl Drug Rehabilitative Education Program...is the youngest in a family of eight children...he was raised in Kosse, TX (pop. 484) and played at Groesbeck High School.

K 6-0 185
SOUTHAMPTON (Eng.) 10th year
DOB: 12-30-49 at Leafield, England
HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1974

PRO: While working out prior to the '82 training camp, John injured his right knee (non-kicking leg) and underwent arthroscopic surgery a short time later...as a result, he did not see any preseason kicking duty and was placed on injured reserve during the final roster reduction process...since Dan Miller and Rex Robinson were unable to maintain their kicking levels, the Patriots took a gamble and placed John on procedural waivers in the sixth week of the season...after he cleared, John was reactivated and three days later, kicked a much heralded 33-yard FG in the snow to help beat Miami 3-0...a week later, kicking in perfect condtions inside the Kingdome, John attempted a personal career single game high five FGs, hitting on three as the Patriots won 16-0...with 671 career points, John is second in club history to the Patriots' all-time scoring king, Gino Cappelletti (1,130)...since not scoring in the Patriots' 7-0 loss to Houston in the 1975 season opener, John has scored in a club record 96 consecutive games...having made 125 of 185 career FG attempts, John is the NFL's third best FG accuracy leader of all-time with a 67.56% mark...the recently retired Toni Fritsch (67.96%) and Efren Herrara (67.85%), both veterans of indoor kicking are the only two kickers ahead of Smith...in nine indoor FG attempts during his career, he has made seven for a 77.9% accuracy mark...one of the game's most reliable short to mid-range kickers, he has made 97 of 118 kicks inside the 40 (82.2%) despite kicking in at least 11 games a year in such stadiums as Foxboro, Shea, Rich and Baltimore's Memorial, that give kicker nightmares...connecting on all four FG attempts and all three PAT attempts, he set a personal career single game scoring high of 15 points at San Diego (11-9-75)...during the 1981 season, John made the longest FG of his career, 50 yards, against Kansas City (10-4)...three weeks later, at Washington (10-25), he tried the longest attempt of his career, 53 yards, but the ball fell just short in a driving rain...John had made 79 consecutive PATs since 11-18-79 until his final PAT attempt in the Patriots' 33-17 win over Kansas City on 10-4-81 sailed wide to the right...in eight seasons, John has scored ten or more points in 15 games, including eight games in 1980...John's 129 points in 1980 not only broke his own club record for points in a season (115 in 1979), but it is still the best individual season point total since O.J. Simpson ran up 138 points in 1975...in the process, he set several new club records in 1980...hitting on all 51 PAT attempts, he set the club marks for PATs made and attempted in a season...his 26 FGs (on 34 attempts) were also a new club mark while his 129 points were the most ever by a kicker in club history...in 1979, he topped Earl Campbell of Houston and Mark Moseley of Washington by just one point to win NFL scoring honors with 115 points...at the same time, he broke Cappelletti's record for points kicking by a Patriot in a season (114 in 1964)...his FGs spelled the margin of victory on back-to-back weeks during 1979 as the Patriots stopped Cincinnati 20-14 (9-16) and San Diego 27-21 (9-23)...despite making only one of his first eight attempts past the 40-yard mark in '79, he hit on five of his last six FG attempts from 40 yards or more...in Patriots' 56-3 victory over the NY Jets (9-9-79), he tied the club record for most PAT attempts (8) and established the new club record for most PATs made (8) in a game...a leg muscle tear early in '78 almost ended John's kicking career and he joined the injured reserve roll after three games...prior to '78, he led the Patriots in scoring four straight seasons (1974-77)...was the only NFL kicker who did not miss a PAT attempt in '75 (33-33) and matched that feat again in '77 (33-33)...John had an unusual start on the pro gridiron...as a visitng soccer camp instructor, he tried kicking a football and was given a tryout by the Patriots in 1973...after signing a free agent contract, he was traded to Pittsburgh, later waived, and subsequently returned to kick for the NE Colonials (ACFL)...was ACFL scoring champ of '73 while hitting 36 straight PAT conversions and 19 of 21 FGs (longest was 48 yards)...the left footed soccer style kicker then signed another free agent pact with the Patriots on 4-7-74...as a rookie, scored 90 points to finish as runnerup to AFC scoring champ Roy Gerela and fourth best in NFL...PFW and Football Digest All-Rookie Team selection in '74.

PERSONAL: Married (Vivienne)...has three daughters, Felicity (7), Nicola (5) and Victoria (1) as well as a son, Martin James (3)...spends the offseason as a senior account executive for the Seiler Corporation of Waltham, MA, a New England area food service contractor...was the Patriots' Miller Man-of-the-Year Award winner in 1982...actively promotes and conducts both soccer clinics and his own youth soccer camp...served as the color commentor for the first-ever live Super Bowl (XVII) broadcast throughout his native Great Britian...based in a London Studio, he explained the basics of American Football to the English audience watching the Miami--Washington contest over the public owned Channel 4...also finds time to participate in Athletes-in-Action, FCA and the Special Olympics...the first time he ever saw an American football game, he played in it at the age of 24.

DWIGHT WHEELER 62

OC 6-3 274
TENNESSEE STATE 5th year
DOB: 1-13-55 at Memphis, TN
HOW ACQUIRED: D-4, 1978

PRO: Dwight switched from OT to center last season, playing the backup role to starter Pete Brock while continuing to handle the PAT/FG snapping duties...prior to the switch last year, Dwight had started 36 of a possible 48 games over the previous three seasons at left tackle...after starting the first 11 games of 1981, he gave way to first round pick Brian Holloway...as a rookie in 1978, he received praise from players and coaches alike, but was lost for the season after breaking his ankle in the second game (at St. Louis, 9-10)...upon his return the next year, he was thrust into the starting left OT position after Leon Gray was traded to Houston...after a fine start, a list of nagging injuries, primarily to his neck and ankle, forced him out of the starting lineup after ten games...he then saw spot duty in the next five games before being placed on injured reserve (12-12-79) for the balance of the year...in 1980, he matured as a pro OT, starting 15 of 16 games...the only tarnish on his starting streak was caused by a knee injury, forcing him to miss a start at Seattle (9-21) in the season's third game...however, he later saw action in that game.

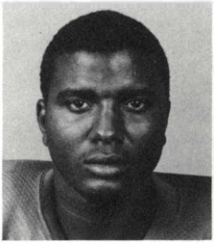
COLLEGE: Saw action as center, guard and tackle for the Bengal Tigers...Senior Bowl participant winner of J.C. Coffee Award as school's top blocker.

PERSONAL: Married (Renee)...father of an infant daughter, Ashlee Renee...spends the offseason in Memphis, working in several youth athletic programs...lists photography, racquetball and tennis among his favorite pastimes...sixth oldest in a family of ten children.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1978-2/0 (On injured reserve 9-13 through remainder of season), 1979-13/10, 1980-16/15, 1981-16/11, 1982-9/0, Total: 56/36.

OTHER STATS: Kickoff Returns: 1978-one for zero yds. Fumbles: 1979-one (snapped ball over punter for safety), 1980-one (snapped ball over punter for safety).



LESTER WILLIAMS 72

NT 6-3 272
MIAMI (FL) 2nd year
DOB: 1-19-59 at MIAMI, FL
HOW ACQUIRED: D-1b, 1982

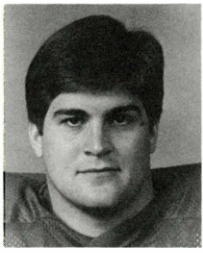
PRO: Despite having to wear a cast on his left hand for the entire season because of a wrist injury, Lester quickly became a mainstay at the NT spot...he started all nine games in '82 while recording 35 total tackles, 1½ QB sacks for -14 yards, four QB pressures, blocked one FG attempt, had one pass deflection and one fumble recovery...had a big day in Patriots' 29-21 win over Houston (11-28)...in that game he was in on six tackles, and recorded two QB pressures and ½ a QB sack...played a big part in Patriots' 16-0 shutout win over Seattle (12-19) when he blocked a 52-yard FG attempt...also had four total tackles, one fumble recovery and one pass deflection in that game...a massive defender with good quickness, speed and natural strengths, Lester was the fourth defensive lineman (27th player selected overall) taken in the 1981 draft...the second of two Patriots' first round draft choices, he was selected with the San Francisco 49ers' first round pick that was acquired in the Russ Francis trade.

COLLEGE: Recorded 266 career tackles and 19 career QB sacks, including eight as a junior and five as a senior...had the best game of his collegiate career in '81 when the Hurricane beat Houston 12-7...in that game, he racked up 14 solo tackles, three assists, three QB sacks, one fumble recovery, one blocked FG attempt and one blocked PAT attempt...both Lester and Patriots' FS Fred Marion (D-5, 1982) were consensus All-America picks as seniors at Miami (FL)...played in '82 East-West Shrine Game, '82 Olympia Gold Bowl and '81 Blue-Gray Game.

PERSONAL: Married (Betty)...is the father of one son, Lester, Jr. (5) and one daughter, Camile (1)...is working to complete a degree in Education during offseason...earned three letters each in football, wrestling and track and was state heavyweight champ while at Carol City (FL) High School...the most renowned high school player nationally in 1978, he was Parade Magazine's outstanding lineman in the country...was a member of the USA Junior Olympic team as a heavyweight wrestler...is a video game enthusiast and enjoys deep sea fishing.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982-9/9.

STATS: Fumble Recoveries: 1982-1. Blocked a FG attempt at Seattle 12-19-82.



RON WOOTEN 61

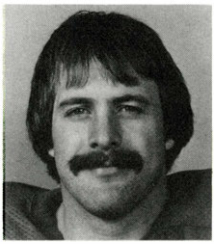
OG 6-4 273
NORTH CAROLINA 2nd year
DOB: 6-28-59 at Otis Air Force Base, Cape Cod, MA
HOW ACQUIRED: D-6, 1981

PRO: In the third regular season game, Ron became the starter at RG in place of the injured Bob Cryder...while playing in all nine games, he started the final seven as well as the playoff game at Miami...in doing so, he performed very effectively as a first-year starter...one of the most dedicated weight trainers on the club, he has added fifteen pounds and increased both his speed and strength since his rookie year...with Bob Cryder slated to fill the vacany in the starting lineup at LG left by the retirement of John Hannah, Ron will continue to start at RG...as a rookie, he made an impressive showing in training camp but a back injury forced him onto the injured reserve rolls on 8-31-81 where he spent the entire season.

COLLEGE: Was the leading vote-getter of offensive linemen on the '80 All-ACC team...named on 114 of 122 ballots...teamed with center Rick Donnalley senior year to lead the Tar Heels awesome running attack (270 yds. per game)...was named to 1st Team All-ACC senior year.

PERSONAL: Married (Ann)...graduated in the Spring of 1982 from North Carolina with a degree in Chemistry...has spent the offseason working on an MBA at Boston University...enjoys bass fishing...his father is a former Air Force pilot and his brother Ray is an assistant football coach at Appalachian State University.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1981-On injured reserve entire season, 1982-9/7, Total: 9/7.



JOHN ZAMBERLIN 54

ILB 6-2 226
PACIFIC LUTHERAN (WA) 5th year
DOB: 2-13-56 at Tacoma, WA
HOW ACQUIRED: D-5, 1979

PRO: John has played in all but one game over the last two seasons as a backup inside linebacker and special teams performer...last year, he turned in eight tackles and 12 assists...in 1981, he started the first game of the year while playing in the remaining 15...on the year, he had 27 tackles and 21 assists, while also recording the only interception of his career (vs. Houston, 10-18-81)...in 1980, he played in all 16 games, starting 13 of them...on the year, John was in on 87 tackles and had 2½ sacks for -19½ yds...finished as the team's third leading tackler in '80...at NY Jets (10-5-80) Steve Nelson blocked a 49-yard FG attempt by Pat Leahy and John recovered the ball, only to lateral to Mike Haynes who raced 65 yds. for the Patriots' second score of the day...Haynes' TD on the play was only the second time in club history that a Patriot returned a blocked FG attempt for a TD...injuries slowed John down at the start of his rookie year, however he recorded 18 tackles as a rookie...started in '79 season finale vs. Minnesota (12-16).

*Team Leader

FOR THE RECORD. . . .

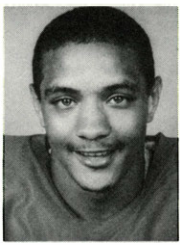
In the 23 seasons that the Patriots have played, a Patriot kicker has won the league scoring title seven times. Gino Cappelletti won the AFL scoring title five times (1961, 1963-66) while John Smith won back-to-back NFL scoring titles in 1979 and 1980.

TOBY WILLIAMS 90

DE 6-3 254
NEBRASKA D-10b
DOB: 11-19-59 at Washington, DC

COLLEGE: Former walk-on with great size and quickness...played key role in Cornhuskers' defense that led the Big Eight in all defensive categories...the second of three Patriots' tenth round choices, Williams was selected with the New Orleans Saints' tenth round pick acquired in a 1983 draft day trade...after sharing DT role as a sophomore, he had to battle back from illness and injury to regain No. 1 slot as a junior in 1981...missed first two 1981 contests due to a liver ailment which caused 15-pound weight loss in one week...recorded 137 total tackles, 10 tackles for 42 yards in losses, five QB sacks for 41 yards, three fumble recoveries and six pass deflections while at Nebraska...returned from knee strain senior year to play in Orange Bowl victory over LSU...walked on at Nebraska in 1978 with brother Jimmy...immediately started for freshman squad before redshirting 1979 campaign...burst on Big Eight scene as conference's Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year in 1980...1982 honors include: AP Honorable Mention All-American, AP 2nd Team All-Big Eight, and played in 1983 East-West Shrine game.

PERSONAL: Single...graduated in summer of 1983 with a B.A. in Criminal Justice from Nebraska...comes from a family of ten children...brother Jimmy, a linebacker, was the first round choice of the Detroit Lions in 1982...a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High (Washington, D.C.) where he played both OT and DT...full name is Tobias Williams.



DARRYAL WILSON 17

WR 6-0 182
TENNESSEE D-2
DOB: 9-19-60 at Florence, AL

COLLEGE: Fleet-footed acrobatic receiver with track background...the Patriots' second round pick, Darryal was the 47th player selected overall and the fifth WR taken...4.5, 40 speed makes him a deep threat...ran middle distance for the Vols' track team, but could compete with teammate Willie Gault in the sprints...extremely competitive in pass receiving over the middle...split duty at second WR post with Mike Miller opposite Gault...finished senior campaign as Vols' 3rd ranked receiver with 23 receptions for 308 yards while averaging 13.4 yards per reception...best '82 effort came when he caught seven aerials for 74 yards including a clutch fourth quarter scoring grab in 24-24 tie at LSU...capped 1982 season with seven catches for 62 yards in UT's Peach Bowl loss to Iowa...junior hi-lite was an outstanding fully extended grab of a 46-yard toss against Georgia...lettered as a sophomore, but did not catch a pass that year or as a freshman in 1979...Darryal joins three other former Vols from Tennessee on the Patriots' roster — Stanley Morgan, Roland James and Biran Ingram...played in 1983 Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Single...Sociology major at Tennessee who plans to complete degree during pro offseasons...enjoys music, water skiing and basketball...comes from a family of six children and is the youngest of three boys...attended Virginia (Bristol, VA) High School.

GET THE ATRA ADVANTAGE

Atra® has an advantage over twin-blade razors that don't pivot. They can't give the same great shave as Atra. When they reach the curves and corners, they lose their grip.

But Atra's pivoting head is proven to stay on track– it keeps both blades on your beard longer. So you end up with the winning shave.

WNEV-TV TO AIR PRESEASON GAMES

WNEV-TV, Channel 7 (CBS) in Boston will air three of the Patriots' four preseason games for the first time in 1983. Jim Kelly, formerly of CBS Radio and a veteran CBS-TV play-by-play announcer, will handle the play-by-play for the WNEV-TV broadcasts. Channel 7 will air the Patriots' preseason clashes with Pittsburgh, the LA Rams and Tampa Bay while NBC-TV will nationally televise the Patriots-49ers game on August 14th. Channel 7 will also air a weekly Patriots pregame show during the preseason and three weekly Patriot shows during the regular and post-seasons.

SERIES NOTES: PATRIOTS LEAD SERIES 3-0... The Seahawks are one of three teams never to have beaten the Patriots in regular season NFL action...in the clubs' most recen meeting, the Patriots' offense rolled up 249 yards on the ground and the defense recovered two Seattle fumbles and intercepted Jim Zorn four times to record a 16-0 shutout victory at the Kingdome (12-19-82)...in their first meeting ever, the Patriots blanked the Seahawks 31-0, at Foxboro (10-9-77)...the Patriots also took a 37-31 come-from-behind victory in Seattle (9-21-80), three weeks after losing to the Seahawks 30-23 in the preseason finale that year...Patriots' 1983 Kingdome appearance will mark only the eighth indoor appearance in club history.

BRYANT COLLEGE

Since 1976, the Patriots have conducted summer practice sessions at Bryant College in Smithfield, Rhode Island. Situated on a beautiful 290 acre campus located 12 miles northwest of Providence, Bryant offers undergraduate degrees in Business Administration and Criminal Justice as well as Graduate Programs in Business Administration. Bryant's enrollment includes over 5,000 students attending both day and evening programs while more than 2,500 of the students reside on campus.

Bryant has a 119 year-old tradition of excellence in business education and relocated from a Providence campus in 1971. Since that time, the campus has expanded to accommodate an ever increasing student enrollment. The focal point of the campus is the award-winning Unistructure (pictured above) that houses faculty, administrative and student activities offices as well as all classrooms, a swimming pool, bank, U.S. Post Office, bookstore, dining facilities and the Patriots' summer offices. In 1981, a newly completed Multipurpose Activities Center (MAC) was opened and adjoins the original physical education building. These structures provide the Patriots expansive areas for their locker rooms, athletic training staff, equipment storage and issuance and the team's strength and conditioning center.

Since moving their summer training site to Bryant, the Patriots have amassed a 57-34 regular season record (62.6%), indicative of the fine preseason training facilities offered at the Smithfield campus.

1982 GAME BY GAME

NOTE: Due to the 57-day NFLPA strike, the National Football League was forced to cancel seven weekends of regular season action and makeup one weekend of games. The Patriots missed home games against Seattle (9-26), Cincinnati (10-10), St. Louis (10-24) and Baltimore (11-7) and road games at Buffalo (10-3), Miami (10-17) and the NY Jets (10-31). The makeup game against Buffalo, originally scheduled for Schaefer Stadium on November 14, was re-scheduled and played on January 2, 1983.

Patriots 24, Baltimore 13

Baltimore, Sept. 12 — Tony Collins rushing effort and strong defensive play by the Patriots enabled the Patriots to win their season opener against division rival Baltimore for their first road win in nine games. Collings had the best rushing day in the NFL, rushing 21 times for 137 yards, and added a TD on a 15 yard pass from Matt Cavanaugh. The defense turned in three interceptions, one each by CBs Mike Haynes and Ray Clayborn and LB Don Blackmon, and a fumble recovery that led to two Patriot TDs. Although the Colts got on the board first with a 49-yard FG by Mike Wood, the Patriots knotted the score at 3-3 with a 24-yard FG by Rex Robinson before Collins started to run wild. The win was the first for new Patriot head coach and marked the 11th time in as many seasons as a college or pro head coach that Meyer's team won their season opener. Not only did the Patriots win their first game on the road since the season finale of 1980, they also gained their first division win after finishing 0-8 in division play in 1981.

NY Jets 31, Patriots 7

Foxboro, Sept. 19 — In a game that the Patriots would just as soon forget, the Jets handed the Patriots their worst defeat since a 45-10 thumping at Denver in 1979. The Jets stifled the Patriots offense, holding them to just 57 yards, an all-time club low. The biggest highlight of the game for the Patriots was a 98-yard kickoff return for a TD by rookie DB Ricky Smith. P. Rich Camarillo also excited the crowd with a 76 yard punt, the second longest in club history and the longest in the NFL since 1978. On defense, SS Roland James, rookie NT Lester Williams and LB Don Blackmon each had a QB sack while LB Steve Nelson figured in on 17 tackles.

Cleveland 10, Patriots 7

Cleveland, Nov. 21 — Following a 57-day NFLPA strike, the Patriots resumed action on the road at Cleveland against the 1-1 Browns. On a rainy day and slippery turf, both teams slipped through three scoreless quarters before Brown QB Brian Sipe hit former Patriot WR Ricky Feacher with a 40-yard TD pass early in the final stanza. Feacher grabbed the pass and eluded two sliding Patriot defenders to race down the sideline for the score. The Patriots had the first opportunity to score, but Rex Robinson missed on a 33 yard FG attempt that sailed wide right in the third quarter. The Patriots only TD of the day came with under four minutes to play as Matt Cavanaugh heaved a 38-yard pass to Preston Brown who made a spectacular leaping catch over a Brown defender for the score. With 1:24 to play, the Patriots took over at their own 12 after a Steve Cox punt, and FB Mark van Eeghen lost the ball at the 20 on a contested fumble call. That fumble set up the game-winning FG of 24-yards by Matt Bahr on the game's final play. Van Eeghen, with 63 yards on 13 carries, became only the 19th back in NFL history to cross the 6,000 yard career rushing mark.

Patriots 29, Houston 21

Foxboro, Nov. 28 — The Patriots big play offensive returned home to Foxboro as QB Steve Grogan replaced Matt Cavanaugh in the starting QB slot. Grogan, making his first appearance of the 1982 regular season and his first start since November 15, 1981, connected on 10 of 16 passes for 195 yards and 3 TDs, including a 62-yard TD toss to Stanley Morgan on the Patriots third offensive play. Grogan and Morgan also connected on a 24-yard on the Patriots third offensive play. Grogan and Morgan also connected on a 24-yard TD pass to give the Patriots a 14-7 edge and a lead they would never surrender. Morgan finished the day with 127 yards on five receptions, marking the 15th time in his six-year career that he had a 100-yard receiving game. While the offense cranked up a big 29-7 lead midway through the final quarter, the defense continually halted QB Archies Manning and the Oiler offense. Earl Campbell was limited to just 37 yards on 16 carries while Manning was sacked six times. The win was the second straight over the Oilers who had beaten the Patriots four straight times prior to their 1981 meeting in Foxboro.

Chicago 26, Patriots 13

Chicago, Dec. 5 — Poor special teams play and an opportunistic Bear offense resulted in the Patriots losing their third game of the season and first ever to Chicago. From the opening kickoff, the Bears controlled the field position and ran up a 23-0 lead until Steve Grogan vaulted over from the one with less than a minute to play in the first half. With the Bears driving for another score in the third quarter, FS Rick Sanford picked off a Jim McMahon pass at the one and chugged 99 yards for a TD to close the Bears lead to 23-13. Sanford's interception return was the longest in club history, bettering the old mark of 98 yards set by Bob Suci in 1963. On their next possession, the Patriots drove to the Bear 17, but their comeback attempt was stifled when Terry Schmidt intercepted a Steve Grogan to Stanley Morgan pass attempt in the endzone. Schmidt later picked off another pass intended for Morgan to stop another Patriot drive. The balance of the game was a defense struggle as the Bears managed only a 43-yard FG while shutting out the Patriots.

Patriots 3, Miami 0

Foxboro, Dec. 12 — While Steve Grogan attempted just five passes, and both clubs managed a total of only 89 yards in the air, this game will long be remembered as the one in which Mark Henderson brushed a clearing for K John Smith to kick the winning field goal. Despite the brushing incident, the Patriots defense did not allow the Dolphins inside the Patriot 19 and recorded their second shutout of the Dolphins in three seasons. Because of snow and slippery conditions, both teams relied heavily on fullback oriented offenses, and the Patriots even had a 79 yard, 18 play drive that covered 12:41. However, Mosi Tatupu was stopped on third down at the Dolphin one and Smith slipped on the ensuing FG attempt as the Patriots came away empty handed. Smith's winning FG of 33 yards was booted into a 20 mph wind and came with 4:10 to play. The Dolphins then drove to the Patriot 19,but LB Don Blackmon intercepted David Woodley at the Patriots 10 with 37 seconds to play to stop the Dolphin drive. On the final play of the game, SS Roland James intercepted a desparation Woodley pass at the Patriot 10 to end the game.

Patriots 16, Seattle 0

Seattle, Dec. 19 — Rolling up 249 yards on the ground, recovering two Seattle fumbles and intercepting four Jim Zorn passes, the Patriots earned their second straight shutout win in beating the Seahawks, 16-0. The Patriots took advantage of outstanding offensive line play as RB Tony Collins ran for 102 yards and FB Mark van Eeghen rushed for 82 more. While the defense did not allow the Seahawks inside the Patriots 29, the offense lent a hand by controlling the ball for 81 plays and 42 minutes and two seconds. K John Smith attempted a personal career high five field goals and hit on three, while van Eeghen scored his first TD as a Patriot in grabbing a five-yard pass from Steve Grogan. Seattle had one opportunity to score, a 52-yard FG attempt by Norm Johnson, but NT Lester Williams blocked the try to perserve the shutout. One defense, CB Mike Haynes had two interceptions while Roland James and Rick Sanford each had a steal. DE Ken Sims had the Patriots only sack of the day as the Patriots recorded their second back-to-back shutout victory in club history and for the first time in the NFL since 1976.

Pittsburgh 37, Patriots 14

Pittsburgh, Dec. 26 — With a playoff spot riding on the line, the Patriots (4-4) met the Steelers (4-4) in their Three Rivers Stadium home where they had won 82 of 100 games since starting play there. Despite the fact that QB Terry Bradshaw and the Steelers were in a slump, losing two straight, they exploded before the home crowd to take a 20-0 halftime lead. Bradshaw, displaying the form that helped the Steelers win four Super Bowls, passed for 282 yards and 2 TDs without being sacked or intercepted. The Steelers defense limited the Patriots top ranked rushing offense to just 48 yards on 15 carries and the Patriots had little more success in the air. On the last play of the first half, QB Steve Grogan suffered a concussion when hit by DB Ron Johnson, and missed the second half. Head Coach Ron Meyer elected to go with second-year QB Tom Flick, who took his first snap in a Patriot uniform. Flick directed three Patriot series and Matt Cavanaugh then took over, showing a hot hand before his hometown crowd. Cavanaugh tossed a 75-yard TD strike to WR Stanley Morgan after hitting TE Lin Dawson with a 23-yard TD pass, and had an apparent 71-yard pass play TD to Morgan negated by a holding call.

Patriots 30, Buffalo 19

Foxboro, Jan 2, 1983 — In game that would determine who would earn a playoff spot and who would be finished for the year, the Patriots scored a season high 30 points and had their best offensive day of the year — 418 yards — as they rolled over the Bills in a makeup game at Schaefer Stadium. QB Steve Grogan hit on 20 of 34 passes for 260 yards, hitting eight different receivers. Stanley Morgan was the Patriots big gun, catching a single game career high seven passes for 141 yards. The Bills took a 13-3 lead with 57 seconds to play in the first half, but Grogan moved the Patriots 69 yards in seven plays and 42 seconds, hitting WR Morris Bradshaw with an 11-yard TD pass to close the Bills hafltime lead to 13-10. The Patriots took the second half kickoff and moved 69 yards again, as Grogan hit WR Ken Toler with his second reception, and second TD, of the year for a 16-10 lead. The Bills tied the score 16-16 on the next drive, but all-pro CB Mike Haynes made the defensive play of the game, intercepting Joe Ferguson at the Bills 38 and taking the ball back to the 12. Four plays later, RB Tony Collins bolted over from the one for a 23-16 Patriot lead early in the fourth quarter. The Patriots then bullied their way up and down the field, scoring once more — Grogan to hasselbeck for two yards — and holding on to the ball for 13 minutes and 19 seconds of the final stanza.

FOR THE RECORD. . . .

Stanley Morgan has surpassed the 100-yard receiving mark in 18 games during his five-year pro career. That mark is tops in Patriots' club history. Jim Colclough ranks second in that category with nine such games while Harold Jackson had eight 100-yard games as a Patriot and Gino Cappelletti had seven during his Patriot career.

PATRIOTS IN OVERTIME

Overtime and regular season play have not been a winning combination through the years for the Patriots since the NFL adopted the sudden death overtime format for regular season games beginning in 1976. In six overtime contests, the Patriots have lost all six games, including three in a row by an identical 16-13 score. In the six overtime games played during the regular season, the Patriots have won the coin toss three times and lost it three times. In two of the three games when the Patriots have lost the coin toss, the opposition has scored the winning points without the Patriots gaining possession. In preseason play, the Patriots are 3-1 in overtime games.

DE Ken Sims was the top pick in the entire 1982 NFL Draft.

ALL-TIME PATRIOTS' PLAYER DRAFT

Note: The Patriots selected 19 players in the 1983 draft, a league record since the 12 round draft format was adopted in 1977. The previous high mark of 18 was set by Cincinnati (1977 and 1978) and Pittsburgh (1977). In 1983, the NFL draft was conducted on one day, a revision of the previous two-day format. During the 1983 draft, the Patriots traded a 1984 fourth round choice to New Orleans in exchange for 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th round choices in 1983.

FOR THE RECORD. . . .

As the result of several trades, including the swap of their fourth round choice in 1984 to New Orleans for the Saints' 1983 ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth round picks, the Patriots made a club and league high 19 draft picks in 1983. The previous high mark of 18 (since the NFL adopted the 12-round draft format in 1977), was set by Cincinnati (1977 and 1978) and Pittsburgh (1977). The Patriots also led the NFL in draft choices in 1982, making 17 selections.

Dec. 5 Eighth year QB Steve Grogan completes 13 of 28 passes for 231 yards in a 26-13 loss at Chicago to break Babe Parilli's club records for career completions (1,140) and career passing yardage (16,911)

1983

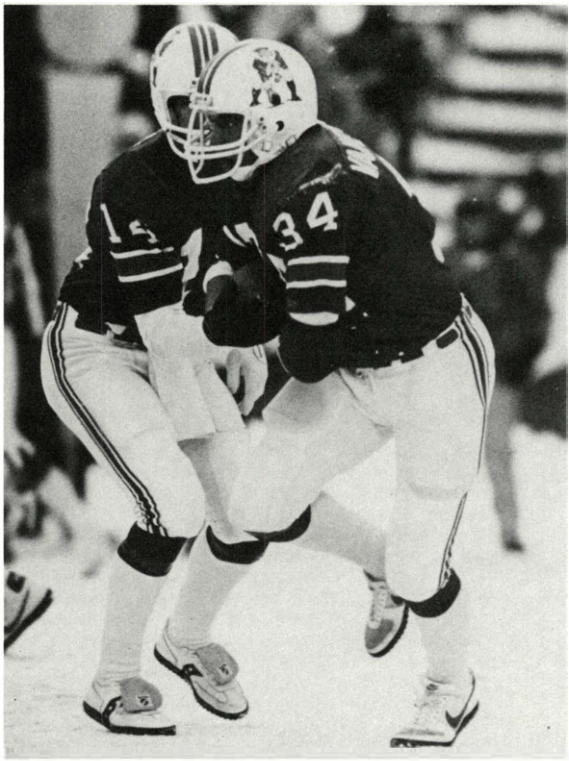
Jan. 8 In their first playoff appearance since 1978, the Patriots lose to the eventual AFC Champion Miami Dolphins at the Orange Bowl, 28-13.

Feb. 16 General Manager Bucko Kilroy is promoted to the position of Vice President and Patrick Sullivan, Assistant General Manager for four years, is named General Manager.

April 26 The Patriots tab Illinois QB Tony Eason as their first round pick, and lead the NFL for the second straight year with the most choices — 19. The draft was held in one day, beginning at 8 a.m. and concluding the next morning at 2 a.m.

May 23 Schaefer Stadium is renamed Sullivan Stadium in honor of the founder and driving force behind the Patriots franchise, William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr.

June 29 Sullivan Stadium is officially re-dedicated and the Boston Pops performs a concert in the stadium that is open free-of-charge to the public.



FB Mark van Eeghen will enter the 1983 season as the NFL's 16th ranked all-time rushing leader.

AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
PATRIOTS 26, BUFFALO 8

Buffalo (War Memorial Stadium), Dec. 28 — The game was the first playoff in the still infant American Football League's history, a match for the AFL's Eastern Division title. QB Babe Parilli and Gino Cappelletti figured in all of the Patriots points as Parilli hit Larry Garron for scoring strikes of 59 and 17 yards and Cappelletti hit for four FGs (28, 12, 33 and 36) while adding two PATs. Ron Burton provided an inspirational boost for the Patriots as he heroically returned to play just a few weeks after disc surgery. Jack Rudolph led a Patriots defensive charge with 11 tackles while helping hold Buffalo's big back, Cookie Gilchrist to just 7 yards. Buffalo's only highlight of the day was a 93-yard scoring pass from Darryl Lamonica to Elbert Dubenion.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
SAN DIEGO 51, PATRIOTS 10

San Diego (Balboa Stadium), Jan. 5, 1964 — Charger Keith Lincoln and injuries to star FB Larry Garron (concussion). Houston Antwine (back) and Harry Crump (shoulder) spelled disaster for the Patriots as the 6½ point favorite Chargers coasted to a 51-10 victory. Lincoln rushed for an amazing 206 yards on the ground and added 123 more yards in receptions. The Chargers ran up a 31-10 lead at the half, and added 20 more unanswered points in the second half to capture the AFL title.

1976
AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
OAKLAND 24, PATRIOTS 21

Oakland (Oakland-Alameda County Colliseum), Dec. 18 — The surprising Patriots, having finished a complete turnaround with an 11-3 record (3-11 in 1975), travelled to Oakland to meet the Raiders in their first playoff competition since 1963. The Patriots jumped in front of the Raiders 7-0 on a 1 yard run by Andy Johnson, but fell behind at the half 10-7 when Fred Biletnikoff hauled in a 31 yard scoring pass from Ken Stabler with just 39 seconds left on the clock. Steve Grogan engineered scoring drives on the Patriots first two possessions of the third quarter, running the Patriots lead to 21-10 at the end of three quarters of play. Oakland responded with a score on its first possession of the fourth period, a one yard run off left tackle by Mark van Eeghan. With the score at 21-17 in the Patriots favor, John Smith attempted a 50 yard FG with 4:12 remaining, but the kick was low and the Patriots hung on to a slim 21-17 lead. Ken Stabler rallied the Oakland squad, driving the Raiders from their own 32 after the Smith FG attempt, and hitting paydirt for the winning score with only 14 seconds to go. The drive was marred by a controversial roughing the passer call on Ray Hamilton. The Patriots had seemingly stopped the Raiders when a Stabler to Garrett pass on a 3rd and 18 from the Patriot 27 fell incomplete, but penalty flags were thrown and the Raiders had possession with a first and ten at the Patriot 13. Five plays later Stabler rolled around left end for the winning score and the Patriots dreams of a championship in their rags to riches season were over. The loss was the closest one in the playoffs for the Raiders on their way to their Super Bowl Championship. The Patriots were the only team to beat the Raiders (48-17 on 10-3-76) during the regular season as they registered at 13-1 record.

AFC DVISIONAL PLAYOFF
HOUSTON 31, PATRIOTS 14

Foxboro (Schaefer Stadium), Dec. 31 — With the AFC East Division title tucked under their belts, the Patriots played host to the Houston Oilers in the first playoff game ever played at Schaefer Stadium. The Oilers earned the right to meet the Patriots after handing the Dolphins a 17-9 defeat at the Orange Bowl a week earlier. The Patriots had finished the season at 11-6, but were reeling from the controversy that started when Coach Chuck Fairbanks announced his resignation to accept the head coaching position at Coloardo. The game found Fairbanks on the Patriots sidelines, however, but the last day of 1978 also proved the last day of the Patriots '78 season. Dan Pastorini completed 10 of 13 passes for 184 yards in the first half as the Oilers built a 21-0 lead at the intermission. Toni Fritsch added a 30-yard FG before the Patriots rallied with two TDs in the second half, on a 24-yard score on an option pass from RB Andy Johnson to WR Harold Jackson and the other on a 24-yard scoring strike from sub QB Tom Owen to TE Russ Francis. Owen had replaced starter Steve Grogan late in the first half. With the score Houston 24, Patriots 14, the Patriots began a late rally. Starting at their own 18, the Patriots started to move but Gregg Bingham picked off an Owen for Morgan pass and returned it to the Patriot 18, killing the drive and setting up an Earl Campbell 2-yard TD run that put the game out of reach. SS Doug Beaudoin had a big day on defense, making 8 tackles and adding 7 assists, while ILB Steve Nelson added 5 tackles and 5 assists.

SUPER BOWL TOURNAMENT

MIAMI 28, PATRIOTS 13

Miami (Orange Bowl), Jan. 8, 1983 — Finishing seventh in the 14-team AFC field, the Patriots were slated to meet the second-seeded Miami Dolphins in the first round of the 1982/83 Super Bowl XVII Tournament. Before a sellout crowd, the Patriots got on the scoreboard first, taking an early second period 3-0 lead on a 23-yard FG by John Smith. Behind the precision passing of David Woodley (16 of 19, 234 yards, 2 TDs), the Dolphins scored four TDs while the Patriots could only muster another Smith FG (42 yards) through the first three periods. A spectacular defensive effort by the Dolphins limited the Patriots and Steve Grogan to 189 passing yards, sacking Grogan four times and intercepting him twice. FB Andra Franklin, the AFC's second leading rusher in regular season play, carried the ball 26 times for 112 yards to enable the Dolphins to control the ball for 35 minutes and 51 seconds. Making their first playoff appearance since 1978, the Patriots 49-man roster included only 16 players from the 1978 playoff squad. Starting SS Roland James was placed on the injured reserve list two days prior to the game with a knee injury and was replaced in the starting lineup by Keith Lee. Early in the game, starting DE Ken Sims sprained his left ankle and left the game. He later returned, but re-injured the ankle and left the game for good midway through the second stanza.

PLAYOFF TIE-BREAKERS

DIVISION TIES

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied) percentage in games between the clubs.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: if two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker reverts to Step One of two-club format.)

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

WILD CARD TIES

If necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

1. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs eliminated, tie-breaker reverts to Step One of applicable two-club format.)

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-Head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

1. Head-to-Head sweep (applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

PATRIOTS' RADIO NETWORK

JOHN CARLSON JON MORRIS

Veteran announcer John Carlson and former Patriot center Jon Morris will begin their fourth season in 1983 as the broadcast team on the Patriots' Radio Network. Carlson, Sports Director at WEEI Sports Radio 59 in Boston, handles the play-by-play while Morris adds the color commentary and analysis.

Last year (1982), WEEI's broadcasts of Patriots' games were selected as the winner of the Massachusetts Associated Press best sports play-by-play award.

Carlson has been sports director at WEEI since 1975, having joined the station in 1974. During his broadcast career, he has handled the play-by-play assignments for a number of teams including the Boston Celtics, Boston University football and hockey and numerous other schoolboy and collegiate games.

Morris was the Patriots' fourth round draft choice in 1964 after a standout career at Holy Cross. The Patriots' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1965, he played in 131 games as a Patriot from 1964-1974 before being traded to Detroit in 1975. He was named MVP of the Lions in 1977 and played his final year in the NFL with the Chicago Bears the following year (1978). Morris began his broadcast career as color commentator on the Patriots' radio broadcasts in 1979.

The Patriots' Radio Network is headed by flagship station WEEI Sports Radio 59 in Boston and is comprised of 30 stations. Formed when WEEI signed a multi-year pact with the Patriots in July, 1980, the network broadcasts each Patriot preseason and regular season game, WEEI held the original radio broadcast rights to the Patriots' games for the first six years of the club's history.

As of June 20, 1983 the network includes the following affiliates:

SULLIVAN STADIUM

As part of a long term, multi-million dollar marketing agreement between Anheuser-Busch, Inc. and Stadium Management Corporation (SMC), the former Schaefer Stadium took on a new and well deserved name beginning May 23, 1983.

At that time, Charles B. Fruit, Vice President — National Media for Anheuser-Busch said, ''we have named this facility Sullivan Stadium as a tribute to the founder, owner and driving force of the Patriots, William H. Sullivan, Jr.'' Fruit also added that Sullivan and his family—one of the most prominent sporting families in America and New England—have made many contributions to the Greater Boston and Foxboro communities, and to the economic well-being of both.

Sullivan Stadium was originally built at the cost of $6.7 million and financed through the private sale of more than 400,000 shares of stock in Stadium Realty Trust. The offical ground breaking ceremony took place on September 23, 1970 and 326 days later (Aug. 15, 1971) the first game was played at the new Foxboro facility. In that game, the Patriots' posted a 20-14 win over the NY Giants before 60,423 fans.

With space to park 16,000 automobiles surrounding the stadium, the site covers an area of 15 acres and is as long as it is wide, 700 feet. In the process of excavating the bowl shape for the stadium, 250,000 cubic yards of earth were removed from the 35-feet deep hole. The J.F. White Construction Co. then used 15,000 cubic yards of concrete and 660 tons of steel to erect the stadium.

In 1977 the original Poly-Turf playing surfce was removed, an entirely new drainage system installed, the field crown raised four inches, and the entire field resurfaced with a new Super-Turf carpet. Lighting is provided by three towers with 324 mercury lamps (1500 watts per), 200 candle power per square foot on the playing field.

On November 6, 1981, the newly formed Stadium Management Corporation (SMC) headed by Patriots' Executive Vice President Chuck Sullivan, completed the purchase of the then named Schaefer Stadium and its related assets from Stadium Realty Trust. During the ensuing offseason, SMC began a multi-million dollar renovation and improvement program at the Stadium. With the work being done by the stadium's original builder, J.F. White Construction Company of Newton, MA, the stadium took on a new look. Featured in the program was the installation of a Diamond Vision full color instant replay video scoreboard, a 20,000 square foot addition to the Patriots' administrative building, a complete renovation of the stadium's restroom facilities and the addition of 42 stadium suites to the press box facility. Included in the pressbox renovation was the addition of two more levels to the original two (including a fully modern media level) and the construction of two additional elevators to the existing one in service.

Prior to the major improvement work being completed, the stadium capacity was 61,297. The stadium now has 5,604 sideline chair seats, 670 corner chair seats, 47,829 sideline bench seats and 6,983 endzone seats, bringing the new capacity to 61,086. Since the Patriots moved to Foxboro, they have played 111 games there before a total of 6,157,133 fans, or an average of 53,540 per game.

Not only is Sullivan Stadium the home of the Patriots, it will be the site of two Boston College "home" games this fall against Penn State on October 29th and Alabama on November 25th. In addition, several major concerts and a motocross event will also be held at Sullivan Stadium.

THE FRITO-LAY STORY

A UNIQUE FUNDING TRIANGLE

In our quest to improve the quality of life for Boston's youth the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston depends heavily on the generosity of others. The Frito-Lay Company is a prime example of an advocate of the Clubs via an imaginative funding triangle thanks to the New England Patriots.

Here's how it works. As the Patriots score points, Frito-Lay scores for the children of Boston, donating $100 to the Boys and Girls Clubs for each point! Despite the 57-day NFL Players strike, Frito-Lay continued to donate $1,000 per week to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston. This donation brought the 1982 total donation to $31,500 and the total to $300,500 since the program's inception in 1976. Throughout the country and, of course, in Boston, businessmen, parents, and the community at large hail this program as one of the most creative charitable donations in existence.

The funds are designated for a very special purpose...the Boys and Girls Clubs-Frito-Lay Tutorial Assistance Program (known as the Frito-Lay TAP). This education program directly serves over 1,000 children in each of three Clubhouses. Counsellors and tutors reinforce school work, stressing the importance of a well-rounded education. Like the athlete, the student is taught to work daily to improve his skills. Each youngster's individual needs determine the type of supplemental training he or she receives. Some require help in vocabulary and reading. Others lack sufficient mathematic skills. Still others reap the benefits of science instruction through practical lessons at the Museum of Science.

The TAP program provides a strong base for the educational and emotional development of our inner-city kids. Frito-Lay puts their money where it counts, where it will do something positive for our children, and thus, for our community. Since 1976, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston has annually turned to Frito-Lay for assistance in meeting our large financial challenges. Just as regularly, Frito-Lay has been there.

For seven years, Frito-Lay has also supported the Clubs Annual Awards Dinner in the Charlestown, Roxbury, and South Boston communities. These events focus on the outstanding leadership and achievements of our individual members. Recognition supported by Frito-Lay is especially important for our children.

For seven years, Frito-Lay has stood behind our Tri-Club Program, designed to encourage an atmosphere of harmony, understanding, and productive interaction between girls and boys of all races and religions.

For seven years, Frito-Lay has supported the World of Work Program, designed to help unemployed inner-city teenagers become successful members of the work force.

FOR SEVEN YEARS,
FRITO-LAY HAS BEEN A VERY GOOD FRIEND.

Thank you, Frito-Lay.
